50 U. S. SHIPS TO HAUL BRITISH OIL

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—In quick response to President Roosevelt's request for ships for this country's "all-out aid to the democracies," the Maritime Commission made plans today to place 50 American tankers in the service of the British within the next few days.

STANDING READY—In the "danger zone" the Dover-Falkstone area of England, home guardsmen patrol the barren sea cliffs and shore . . . ready to give Hitler's Nazis a warm welcome if they come. Sergt. W. Read stands guard in foreground.

All operators of American tankers of over 5000 tons are being called on for aid in the program.

The tentative plan does not call for a transfer of registry of tankers to the British but for their use outside the war zone for the direct benefit of the British.

Under the proposal the tankers would be operated from oil producing countries along the north coast of South America to United States north Atlantic ports.

At the north Atlantic ports the oil would be transferred to British tankers for the remainder of the trip.

GREAT FLEET SOUGHT
Shipping experts said the transfer of a cargo from one tanker to another is not a difficult operation, such as would be involved in the transfer of general cargo from one vessel to another.

The commission was asked by the President last night to begin requisitioning of refugee vessels in United States ports as one of the first steps toward the objective.

Requisitioning of 69 Axis and Danish vessels aggregating 300,000 tons would provide—as a starter—approximately 15 per cent of the 2,000,000 tons the President called for "at the earliest possible moment" to transport the raw materials required by American defense industries and the war supplies needed by nations resisting aggression.

"Vital war materials are piling up at the ports or delayed at the factories," Mr. Roosevelt declared. "We must supply those ships and at once."

The President emphasized the urgent need for increased shipping facilities last night in instructions to Admiral Emory S. Land, chairman of the Maritime Commission.

Land was directed to "secure the service of at least 2,000,000 tons of merchant shipping" and to plan operations so as to "make their cargo space immediately effective in accomplishing our objective of all-out aid to the democracies."

TASK OUTLINED
Admiral Land's task, as outlined by the President:

1.—To arrange for foreign ships or ships which are to be transferred to foreign registry (presumably also marked mention of the name of Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

Axis Troops Smash Into Fort at Tobruk

CAIRO, Egypt, May 1 (AP)—Axis troops penetrated the outer defenses of British-held Tobruk this morning but "fighting is continuing" at the Libyan port, British headquarters announced.

Its communiqué said the attack was launched by infantry striking at the hold-out British garrison inside the Axis lines "in some strength, supported by numerous tanks."

The British have held out under siege at Tobruk for three weeks despite the Axis re-conquest of Libya. German and Italian units swept beyond, by-passing the stronghold, and crossed from Libyan to Egyptian soil in the region of Salum, 80 miles eastward.

Rome claimed today that Axis scouts had put the British to flight and seized armored equipment in the region of Salum, Egyptian frontier port just over the Libyan border.

British Navy Blasts Axis Troops in Libya

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—British naval units have carried out a successful bombardment of Axis troops and supplies in the Ain El Gazal area of Libya, the Admiralty announced today. The sector is about 30 miles west of besieged Tobruk.

WEATHER

Official U. S. Weather Bureau Forecast

LOCAL—Light rain ending late this afternoon; mostly cloudy and continued cool tonight; Friday, diminishing cloudiness becoming fair and warmer in the afternoon; gentle to moderate northeast winds tonight and Friday; lowest temperature tonight near 40.

CONNECTICUT AND RHODE ISLAND—Mostly cloudy, continued cool tonight; Friday, diminishing cloudiness becoming fair and warmer in the afternoon.

MAINE—Fair tonight, cooler in the southwest portion; light to heavy frost; Friday fair, warmer in the afternoon.

VERMONT AND NEW HAMPSHIRE—Fair tonight, light to heavy frosts in exposed places; Friday fair, warmer in the afternoon.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

Scattered light rain broke out in southern Vermont and New Hampshire and spread southward over New England except Maine early this afternoon. There will be scattered light showers in western Massachusetts during the day and the fire hazard is somewhat reduced. It was much cooler last night than the night before. In northern Maine, temperatures dropped into the lower 20's during the night. The dry, warm air mass continued to dominate the weather over the rest of the eastern portion of the country, resulting in fair weather. Over the Plains states, the current of moist air is weakening but still causes showers and thunderstorms in that area. Columbia, Mo., reported 1.35 inches of rain, and Elk City, Oklahoma, 1.65 inches. A low pressure disturbance persists off the coast from the Delaware capes to Nantucket, and appears to be retreating slowly to the northeastward. One to three tenths of an inch of rain was reported from stations in southern New Hampshire and northeastern Massachusetts.

Soviets in May Day Show of Army Might

MOSCOW, May 1 (AP)—The Red army showed mammoth new motorized mechanized forces in its traditional May Day parade today, with truck-borne infantry and masses of motorized artillery filling Red square.

Two mortars mounted on trucks were among the new machines adapted to modern lightning war.

A warning by Defense Commissar S. K. Timoshenko that Russia is ready "to offer an annihilating rebuff to any encroachment by imperialists" ushered in display of the Red army's might.

Timoshenko's warning was issued in a special order of the day acclaiming Russia's achievements during the past year and emphasizing steps taken to reorganize her armed forces "in the light of experience and modern warfare" at the behest of Joseph Stalin.

He declared that it is the Soviet government's intention to adhere to a peaceful policy, but asserted soberly that "the present international situation is pregnant with all kinds of surprises."

"In these conditions," Timoshenko said, "the Red Army must keep its powder dry and be in constant mobilization and preparedness so that no accident and no tricks of our foreign enemies can catch us unaware."

OH, YEAH!

ROME, May 1 (INS)—Italy's semi-official news agency Aroli today had this comment to offer on the swift Nazi drive through Greece after six months of Italian reversals:

"The German campaign in the Balkans anticipated the inevitable collapse of the Greek armies, which certainly would have been speedily liquidated by Italy."

PROTESTS OVER F. D. WAR MOVES TO FOLLOW WHEELER'S HUB SPEECH

A flood of telegrams to President Roosevelt demanding a stand for peace was expected today from an overflow crowd of 4200 who cheered Senator Burton K. Wheeler during an anti-war speech at Symphony Hall.

Hundreds in the audience promised the Montana senator by a show of hands they would heed his request for telegrams to the White House demanding that the President reaffirm his statements before election that he will not send American soldiers to foreign soil.

Other moves for peace cheered by a throng which reached out with Massachusetts ave. were resolutions adopted, urging Congress to take all precautions against entering the war, and a suggestion by the speaker that his audience ring doorbells to arouse neighbors to the gravity of the situation.

The boos which greeted mention of President Roosevelt's name became so loud that at one point the senator raised his hand for silence and asked his hearers to respect the presidential office. Loud boos also marked mention of the name of Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

Wheeler came out with a flat assertion that naval patrols and convoys are the last steps toward war and in ordering patrols the President is repudiating his oath of office and violating the Constitution. When he told of his opposition to further powers for the President and quoted the Administration's supporters as asking "Can't you trust the President?" shouts of "No" came back from the listeners.

There were 200 police guarding the hall and the streets outside, where 1200 heard the address through loud speakers. Three past commanders of American Legion

GIDDY GIRL, 110, PLANS TO WED 10TH TIME

SAPULPA, Okla., May 1 (AP)—If "Aunt Lizzie" Deever's wasn't in bed with influenza, she'd be celebrating her 110th birthday today by walking down a church aisle—a bride for the 10th time.

The bright-eyed, witty little Sapulpan, feeling "fresh as a flapper" and itching to be up and about, admitted she was in love again, this time with John Knight, a 77-year-old neighbor.

"I'm just a fast-steppin', giddy girl," she said. "We're goin' to get married soon as I'm able to get up and cook."

Now that romance has come into her life again, Aunt Lizzie said she needed only three things to make her birthday complete—a monkey, a canary bird and a ride in one of them airplanes.

Aunt Lizzie's father was a full-blooded Cherokee Indian. Her mother is Irish and Dutch.

"That's the meanest mixture they is," she commented. "That's why I'm tough. Man, I've been snake bit six times, been bit by a mad dog once, had nine husbands and I'm still here."

She walked with the Cherokees over the "Trail of Tears" to Oklahoma and still is mad at the pale-faces because "they wouldn't let us stop and bury my poor old grandmother," who died on the trail.

She smokes a pipe and uses snuff but when offered a cigarette she shook her head.

"No, sir, I don't smoke them things, and I don't like to see any woman do that at all. Me, I like snuff and I don't just dip it. I eat it."

She lives in a three-room home at the edge of town with her son, Henry Pinkham, who will be eligible for an old age pension in two years. She hasn't heard from her 11 other children in many years.

Mention of the war in Europe makes Aunt Lizzie's eyes blaze.

"They're comin' over here, shore as shootin'," she said. "When they get to Sapulpa, I'm agoin' to git in it. Why, I could shoot the hat off your head and never touch you."

Lizzie doesn't believe in divorce. She outlived all her husbands and expects to live longer than her father, who died at 115.

MRS. GWLADYS WHITNEY
Seeks Florida Divorce

Whitney Faces Suit For Divorce

STUART, Fla., May 1 (AP)—Circuit Clerk J. R. Pomeroy said today that Mrs. Gwladys Hopkins Whitney had filed suit for divorce against Cornelius V. Whitney, New York socialite.

Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney is a son of the late Harry Payne Whitney and a grandson of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt.

He is chairman of the board of Pan American Airways. For years he was a leading figure in horse racing.

His "Top Flight" won $275,000 in stake money. He purchased his father's racing stable for $1,261,000 when the latter died in 1930, but announced in 1937 that the famous blue Elton silks would be withdrawn permanently from the track.

Mrs. Whitney, the former Gladys Hopkins of Stratford, Pa., is well known as a horsewoman, and owns a leading stable of jumpers. They were married nearly 10 years ago.

'Moon Comes Over Mountain' Writer Dies

Huge Camp Edwards Cost Laid to Waste

Bond salesmen who drew pay as carpenters, "unexplained jumps" in the cost of lumber and many another startling irregularity today was blamed for the unprecedented $29,000,000 construction cost of Camp Edwards.

Waste and inefficiency of every form went hand and hand with speedy building of the big Cape Cod cantonment, according to Rep. Albert J. Engel of Michigan, in a report prepared for address before Congress today.

The Michigan representative, an A. E. F. captain in the last war, found extravagance in all its forms responsible for the big increase in the final cost of the camp—an increase four times that originally estimated by the War Department.

One matter still unexplained was why the first $4,000,000 set of lumber cost $41.10 per thousand, while the contractor charged $46 for the next 26,000,000 feet. The representative, who has been probing construction costs at Army cantonments throughout the nation, said authorities could give no explanation on this item, but would "try to do so later."

LITTLE TO OFFER
More than 60 per cent of those who drew carpenters' pay were not carpenters at all, Rep. Engel declared. Between 40 and 45 per cent of those who used saw and hammer were unemployed meat cutters, insurance men and others who had little to offer in the way of construction.

At peak employment last November, the staggering total of 18,343 men were at work on the project, a total of 10,151 of them drawing pay as skilled carpenters. But from 60 to 65 per cent of them were not really carpenters.

As an example of how the camp was built, Rep. Engel said that one carpenter foreman admitted that his crew consisted of a lobster fisherman, a bond salesman, an insurance man, a meat cutter, a gasoline station attendant, three laborers who were not carpenters, one good carpenter and one rough carpenter.

The report did compliment the sponsors for the selection of the dry and sandy stretches of Cape Cod as a site—in contrast to reports he made of water-soaked sites of

G. O. P. Here Flirts With Luxury Tax to Pay Old Age Levy

MARIE FACED BIGWIGS TO AID SOLDIER HERO IN DEVENS FRAMEUP

By ALICE BISSELL

If pretty, blonde Marie Brown doesn't tip a bowl of soup down the necks of the boys she serves at Harvard's Adams House dining room it won't be because she isn't nervous.

Because Marie was pretty jittery today—and no wonder!

Her soldier hero, to whom she is engaged to marry—but soon!—and in whom she never once lost faith, has been cleared of a charge of larceny, and all is as it was before. "but we don't talk about that," as the song goes.

FALSELY ACCUSED

And Marie, who was just a little scared about going right up to the general at Fort Devens and telling him the "brass hats" were all wrong about her soldier and that he really was a very nice, honest boy, is now glad she did.

Her soldier, Corp. John J. Holscher, of Lexington st., Belmont, was falsely accused, it seems, of stealing the camera of a new selectee. The military police found, indeed, a camera in Holscher's bag that closely resembled the one his comrade said was stolen.

And all Holscher's protestations that the camera in his bag had been given to him and was really his went for naught at the time. So into the guard house went Holscher, where he stayed for two months—without pay!

CAMERA PLANTED

But a court martial had cleared him completely today—proved conclusively the camera found in his bag had been placed there by someone else, and—anti-climax—his own camera was missing.

But, in the meantime, there was Marie all set to be married Easter Sunday—and there was her fiancé in the Ft. Devens guard house.

A weaker-willed young lady would have tossed the fellow overboard—but not Marie. She fought the thing tooth and nail, and, though fearing publicity might cost her job, she went right up to the bigwigs at the fort and told them they were just plain crazy to think her fiancé was a thief.

And it's not for us to say her little visit didn't help. Anyway, Corp. Holscher came down to visit Marie last night, and, well . . . Marie tells it:

"We were both just so happy it was all over, we just couldn't even talk about our wedding plans. But it'll be soon . . . soon."

MARIE BROWN

From court-martial to happy marital!

Fritz Kreisler's Condition Poor

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—The condition of Fritz Kreisler, 68-year-old violinist who was injured by a truck on Madison ave. Saturday, was said to be "not so good" in a bulletin issued at Roosevelt Hospital at 11:30 a. m. today.

BRITISH NAVY MEN HERE FEAST ON HAM 'N' EGGS

News-conscious commuters were set a-wondering today whether President Roosevelt and Winston Churchill hadn't got their signals crossed and that true Royal Navy instead of the American was guaranteeing hemisphere defense with a 3000-mile patrol when 57 uniformed British officers and sailors marched into the South Station.

Officers in charge of the detail contributed little toward clearing the mystery. A commander hitheily informed newsmen that he "did not know where we came from."

However, more kindly disposed members of the detail, in cautiously phrased sentences, revealed that the group was an advance training party which will prepare for the taking over of the 10 U. S. Coast Guard vessels recently given to England.

These members added that the group was en route to New York, where most of the cutters are being overhauled. They will spend an intensive 10-day training period aboard the Coast Guard vessels under the tutelage of American officers.

The passage over was uneventful British sailors said.

"We didn't see a bloody thing all the way," one declared. "Most of the men appeared to be engineering officers of all grades and all were fully equipped even to steel helmets."

During their short stopover at the

BRITISH TARS IN BOSTON

South Station the 57 men threatened to clean out the terminal restaurant's supply of ham, bacon and eggs, stowing away prodigious quantities of the famous American breakfast combination. One youthful officer wanted a picture taken of his platter full.

"To send home to England," he explained to no one in particular.

 East Boston officers, in charge of Sergt. William E. Payne, searched the Central sq. area for the man after receiving numerous reports that he had been sighted running around aimlessly.
 He was traced to the vicinity of the wharf where Sergt. Payne discovered him in the water, a few feet from shore. The victim was floating face down when pulled from the harbor and was still breathing, but was pronounced dead on arrival at City Hospital.
 Police started a check of rooming houses in East Boston in an attempt to learn the dead man's identity. He was described as five feet ten inches in height, weighed 170 pounds, had a ruddy complexion, gray hair and brown eyes. He wore red, white and blue shorts and a white cotton shirt.

Patriotic May Day Here As Police Keep on Alert

While police remained on the alert to handle any possible Communist disturbance, Boston today fixed its eyes on the truly patriotic observances of May Day.

One of the highlights of the day—the program of the Massachusetts department, Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars—was moved from the Parkman Bandstand on the Common to the Gardner Auditorium of the State House because of the rain.
 Feature of the meeting was an address by Maj.-Gen. Bernard W. Kearney, U. S. A., Ret., past commander in chief of the V. F. W. and chairman of its national defense committee.
 Gen. Kearney emphasized that while he believed in aid to England, he believed in aid for America first.

"I believe the American people will refuse to send a single mother's son to foreign shores on a crusade to uphold any movement," he declared.
 Another feature of the meeting was an address, "A Young Girl Looks on Democracy," by Rita Hammell of Revere, representing the girls of Massachusetts.

The United May Day committee also was scheduled to gather on Charles st. mall under a permit obtained by Otis Archer Hood, one-time Communist candidate for Governor of Massachusetts.

GOVERNOR OPTIMISTIC

The Governor, praising the part that the Auxiliary plays in national affairs, spoke optimistically about the strides America is taking toward its single goal. He said:

"We are making all speed in providing the Army with equipment; we are well on the way to supply the Navy with the biggest feasible fleet; but that is not enough."

"We need a strong, united nation. America will be united if it holds to the ideals that brought it into being; to preserve those ideals is our solemn mission today."

Babies Bought And Sold by Detroit Ring

DETROIT, May 1 (AP)—Police officers and members of the Wayne County prosecutor's staff hoped today to climax their two-month investigation of a group of persons suspected of "buying and selling" the babies of unmarried mothers.

Progress of the investigation was disclosed yesterday by police following the arrest of a 47-year-old grandmother on a tentative charge of conspiracy to violate the state adoption laws.

Another woman was reported sought for questioning, and Lieut. Neil Coolidge of the women's police division said a number of doctors and lawyers were involved.

Lieut. Coolidge said unwed, expectant mothers were given hospital care and sums of money, averaging $50, for their babies, who were sold to childless couples for amounts as high as $100.

"Dozens of instances where the group operated in and about Detroit have been found," Lieut. Coolidge declared. "In one case a religious ceremony in a Detroit hospital attended the adoption of one of these babies, for whom a couple had paid several hundred dollars."

NEW ENGLAND HOTEL MEN EXPECT BANNER SUMMER SEASON

High hopes for a banner summer season were shared by 5000 hotel and recreation officials attending the New England Hotel Ass'n four-day exposition at the Hotel Statler today.

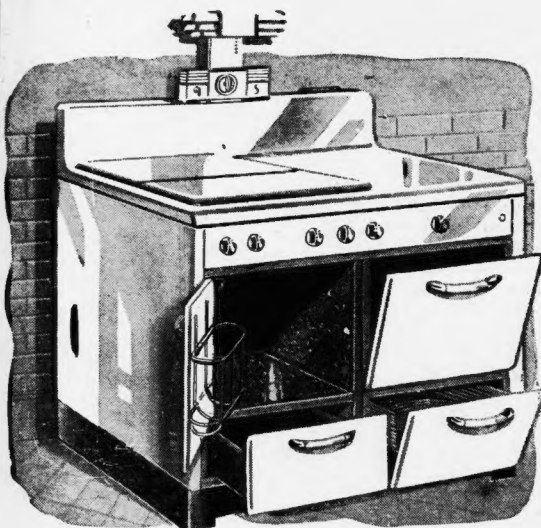

Early bookings indicate more guests are coming to this section and for longer vacations, hotel proprietors generally agreed. Heavy advance sales of food and hotel equipment marked the opening sessions at 100 booths, and salesmen saw in this unmistakable sign of a bigger season. Today's program includes a culinary art salon with chefs giving demonstrations and forming platters of meats and pastries, a luncheon by the New Hampshire Hotel Ass'n and the annual dinner of the Maine Hotel Ass'n. The exposition concludes Saturday.

Rain Ends Many Fires In Forests

Rain wrote "all out" for serious woodland fires in Massachusetts today, but shifting winds counter-acting light showers in New Hampshire continued to give fire fighters in that state a stiff battle with 260 additional volunteers pressed into service.

According to reports made at Lieut.-Gov. Horace T. Cahill's and Fire Marshall Stephen Garrity's blazes in the Groton, West-Tyngsboro and the Bellingham and Silver Lake areas have been extinguished.

In the Framingham, Dover and Needham areas the fires are under control. State police are investigating a Pittsfield fire that burned over 300 acres last night and this blaze is no longer considered dangerous.

Large patrols of forest wardens, state police and volunteers kept watch over all threatened areas, since officials feel that at least a two inch rainfall is necessary to erase the danger of tinder dry forests.

In the Marlowe-Stoddard section of New Hampshire firemen, bolstered by 260 volunteers, were hard pressed to confine the wind driven flames which had consumed 30 square miles.

An east wind carried the blaze in an almost opposite direction, imperiling the village of Gilsom.

MARRIED FOR SPITE DURING RIFT WITH GIRL, HUBBY SAYS

SALEM, May 1—The "why" of Walter Roy Lloyd Goode's strange elopement with pretty, 21-year-old Helen Goode of Saugus was revealed in probate court here today.

"I married her to show the other girl I married her for spite," Goode told Judge John A. Costello.

Mrs. Goode's suit for annulment of her kiasless marriage to Goode, 27-year-old Saugus brush manufacturer, was opened in court April 18. At that time the affair proved puzzling to Judge Costello, who through several hours of questioning kept pressing "why" had Goode married the girl?

JUST DECIDED

Acting on what seemed like a good idea at the time, Mrs. Goode testified, she and Walter went to Seabrook, N. H., on Nov. 3, 1933, were wed, then returned to their respective homes.

They kept their marriage a secret for a year and a half; then, she said, her husband told her father that he had no intention ever of living with her and she'd better apply for an annulment.

As the result of Judge Costello's refusal to grant her marital freedom until the case had been more fully explained, the husband came into court today.

Though his bride said she had been going with him for a year before the wedding and had been engaged for six months, Goode said he had seen her only six times before marriage.

"I had been going with another girl for three years," he explained. "She worked for me. Then we had a fight and broke up. About two weeks later I met Helen. I decided to show my girl, so I married Helen for spite."

"Very soon I realized I had made a mistake, and I realized it again every time I saw her. I saw her about twice a week. She thought we were going to live together, and I never really had the nerve to tell her we weren't till her father found out about it. Then I told."

James C. Hines of Saugus, Helen's father, testified briefly.

Judge Costello took the case under advisement.

Attacker Get 25-Year Term

A sentence of 25 to 30 years in State Prison, one of the heaviest ever handed out in Suffolk Superior Court, was imposed today on George J. Brothers, 24, of Kendall st., Roxbury, confessed attacker of a score of women.

Judge Edward F. Hanly sentenced Brothers for assault and battery with intent to commit a criminal attack on Miss Florence Rice, 60, of Harwich st., South End.

Concurrent sentences of 10 to 15 years each were imposed for convictions on similar charges involving Miss Evelyn Smalley, 20, of Worcester sq., Miss Helen Brennan, 25, of Worcester st., Mrs. Rose Abbott of Columbus ave., and Miss George M. Hamilton, 25, of Massachusetts ave., all South End.

Counsel for the defendant, in a plea for leniency, said Brothers was a constant user of narcotics and was under the influence of marijuana cigarettes at the time of the attacks, which included 12 to 15 others to which he confessed.

Labor Raps Merit Payments

Organized labor today assailed the pending merit system of unemployment compensation insurance assessments as "vicious legislation" which will divide the nation's workers into two classes, steadily employed and steadily unemployed.

The plan, adopted just before prorogation of the Legislature in 1939, becomes effective next year. It provides reduction in rates for employers with few unemployment compensation claims against them to as low as 5 per cent. The present law provides a blanket 27 per cent assessment on payrolls.

Kenneth I. Taylor, of the Massachusetts Federation of Labor, favoring repeal, said the plan would stabilize employment at the minimum level. He charged it was passed hastily and without study.

F.D. Asks 20 Million For Road to Canal

WASHINGTON, May 1 (INS)—President Roosevelt today asked Congress for an authorization of $20,000,000 to complete the Pan-American highway as far South as the Panama canal. The road's present terminus is south of Mexico City.

30 ORDAINED PRIESTS BEFORE THROG HERE

In an impressive two and one-half-hour ceremony today at Holy Cross Cathedral, 30 seminarians were ordained as priests and then conferred their blessings on members of their families who attended.

The ordination mass was celebrated and the ceremonies presided over by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Richard D. Cushing, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, Newton Center, and auxiliary bishop of Boston.

The Cathedral was crowded when the ceremonies began at 9 a. m. and a detail of police was necessary outside the church to keep traffic moving smoothly.

Of the total of 30 new priests, 19 were trained at St. John's Seminary, Brighton, 10 at St. Gabriel's Monastery, to enter the Congregation of Passion, and one, Henry Gallagher of Charlestown, trained at Kansas City, Mo.

In the St. John's Seminary group were Charles Aubut of Lowell, Henry Barry of Dorchester, Daniel Hennigan, Newton Center; John Kelly, West Roxbury; John McDonough, South Boston; William McDonough, Charlestown; John Palmieri, South Boston; Joseph Zito, Revere; Joseph Deacon, South Boston; John Dune, Cambridge; John Foley, Brookline; James Hart; Brighton; John Keating, South Boston; James Manning, Newton; Paul Moritz, Dorchester; George Sweeney, Peabody; John Wallace, Watertown; John Zuremski, South Boston, and Frank Strykowski of Haverhill.

Three Massachusetts boys in the St. Gabriel's Monastery group were John Aleckna of Dorchester, Paul Dignon of Lowell and David Bulman of Greenfield.

The other seven in this group were Joseph Smith, Vernon Johnston, Ralph Balzer, Francis Kuba, Leo Vanston, Albin Lesch, Augustine Hennessy.

With the exception of Fr. Gallagher, all the new priests will celebrate the first mass Sunday, each in his home parish. Fr. Gallagher will celebrate his first mass in Charlestown the following Sunday.

SONGBIRDS ARE GUESTS—Guests of the Crosscup-Pishon's annual ladies' night will be the singing Dennis Sisters, it was announced today. Affair will be held by the Legionnaires in the Louis XVI ballroom, Hotel Somerset, on Friday night.

More Army 'Ousters' Seen As Gen. Johnson Protests

WASHINGTON, May 1 (INS)—A new War Department policy of weeding out from the military reserve of all officers incapable of active service because of physical condition or age was foreseen today.

Whether this policy would be extended to those with reserve commissions who hold views contrary to the White House and the policies of the Administration was also under speculation.

The department is expected to base its stand on the precedent established in the case of Hugh S. Johnson, who was refused a reappointment as a brigadier-general in the reserve by President Roosevelt on the grounds that he would not be called to active duty.

It is expected that the long list of reserve officers who have not yet been called will be closely scanned, and War Department observers predict many repetitions of action similar to that of Johnson.

The White House strongly emphasized that there were no "personalities" in the refusal to rename the famous columnist and former head of the NRA to his general's commission.

The same source pointed out that acceptance of the resignation of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh removed any chance that the War Department or the President had of "gagging" him.

The White House maintained that the easiest way to prevent the Colonel from criticizing the administration's foreign policy would be to call him to active service, where his speeches and actions would be under Army control.

Canadian French Newspaper Under Ban

OTTAWA, May 1 (AP)—The Secretary of State Department announced today that publication of the French language weekly newspaper, Le Droit, of Ottawa, has been prohibited under the defense of Canada regulations as being "prejudicial to the safety of the state and the efficient prosecution of the war."

Warlike Squirrel And Treetop Fall Before Riot Gun

KANSAS CITY, May 1 (AP)—He was only a squirrel, but—he bit a 76-year-old woman, chased her and her daughter into the house; jumped on another woman's shoulder, nipping her arm three times; left a fourth woman with a lacerated leg; bit a 9-year-old boy on the hands.

So 10 policemen came to the rescue, frightened the animal up a tree with BB shot, then used a riot gun.

The first charge went wild. The second brought down the squirrel—and the treetop.

THREE MOVES FOR PEACE IN COMMONS

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—Three independent labor members of Parliament offered today a resolution in Commons calling for replacement of the present cabinet by a "national government" which would "appeal to the peoples of Europe under Nazi rule to support peace on a basis of a socialist Europe."

The resolution was in the form of an amendment to the resolution proposed by Prime Minister Churchill of confidence in the government's policy in Greece, the Near East and its conduct of the war generally. This is to be debated next week.

The amendment proposed that
 "what has happened in Greece repeated what happened in Norway prior to the formation of the present government" and that this was "another indication of the disastrous development of the war."

U. S. Launches Roundup Of 2,000,000-Ton Fleet

ably British) to be placed in service along routes to combat zones, including Great Britain.

2—Reallocation of American-flag ships, including those soon to be completed, on routes outside combat zones, in order that every cargo they carry would be directly or indirectly useful in national defense efforts and the "winning by the democracies of the battle now being waged in the Atlantic."

Admiral Land summed up the job this way—President Roosevelt
 "wanted everything expedited like hell."

H. Harris Robson, formerly vice-president of the United Fruit Co., was immediately placed in charge of the tonnage-finding task, and indications were that the Maritime Commission expected to round up the necessary shipping in three ways:

1—By diverting some of the 7-000,000 tons of ocean-going vessels now comprising the merchant marine; by transferring some of the 2,500,000 tons of Great Lakes shipping to inter-coastal trade, thus releasing inter-coastal vessels for the "bridge to Britain," and by commissioning Army and Navy auxiliaries, laid-up World War ships, lake and coastal route vessels.

2—By placing the one-ship-a-week now being built into immediate commission. Under its building program the Maritime Commission expects to finish 71 ships aggregating 700,000 tons this year; 2,500,000 tons next year and between 3,500,000 and 4,000,000 tons in 1945.

3—By acquiring some of the approximately 100 foreign-flag ships

now in U. S. ports by speeding legislation empowering the President to take them over for the "common good," by purchase, requisition or charter.

REQUISITION PROBABLE

Since there are two Danish agents in this country, each claiming power-of-attorney to hold the 39 Danish ships now held in "protective custody," in formed sources said the President would probably requisition the vessels, sidestepping any possible legal complications which might follow their purchase or charter.

The President may requisition the ships, it was said, by exercising the right of "eminent domain," leaving the question of "just compensation" to be settled at some future time when the legality of the agents' conflicting claims may be decided.

The President has indicated that the 28 Italian and two German vessels held might be declared forfeited to the United States because of sabotage by their crews and placed them in a different category from the Danish ships.

No official announcement has been made of the manner in which the Axis vessels may be taken over, however, and as a matter of policy they might be purchased or requisitioned under the terms of the bill now before Congress.

ANNOUNCING Liberty Checks

Liberty Checks for the individual or business firm available in three colors. Four styles of antique finish, refillable covers stamped with your name in gold.

Insured... Distinctive... Individualized

THE new First National Liberty Check carries particular significance at this time. For it calls attention, pictorially, to some of Boston's most treasured historic possessions that have played leading roles in making this city known throughout the country as "The Cradle of Liberty." And it is singularly appropriate that New England's oldest and largest bank should offer these unique checks.

If you are not now a First National depositor, we invite you to make this bank your bank. We welcome new checking accounts—both large and small. Start your account with any amount you wish, keep any amount on deposit; the service you use determines the cost.

★ PRESTIGE. Your continued success and ours is closely allied with the prosperity and well-being of this community. Every time you issue a Liberty Check, you not only build prestige and good-will for yourself or your business, but also for Boston as well.

★ INDIVIDUALIZED. Liberty Checks carry your name and address. And for your convenience, your checks and stubs will be pre-numbered consecutively to conform to the system you have been using.

★ GREATER SAFETY. Liberty Checks provide greater safety against loss by alteration. They are self-cancelling—ink eradicator, when applied to any part of the check, brings out the word "void" dozens of times and erasure produces glaring, telltale white spots. These safety features are backed by an insurance policy that protects your account.

For further details inquire at any First National office.

BRITISH DEFY IRAQ, LAND 2D STRONG FORCE

By MERRILL MUELLER

International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, May 1—Defying objections of the Iraq government, a second large British military contingent has landed on Iraq territory, official British circles revealed today.

According to quarters, the landing, carried out under terms of the Anglo-Iraq treaty, was accomplished without incident. The troops are now proceeding to Basra, near the shore of the Persian gulf, it was stated.

Two weeks ago the landing of the first British contingent at Iraq was officially announced. At that time it was stated that the troops arrived with the approval of Iraq authorities.

Today, however, officials revealed that the Baghdad government had voiced strong objections to the landing of the second contingent, which was described as a large and strong one.

Plans to evacuate British women and children in preparation for early transformation of the Mesopotamian Plains into a battlefield are being left to the discretion of British Ambassador Sir Kinahan Cornwallis at Baghdad.

Augmented military guards have been assigned to police the Iraq oil fields and the vital pipelines leading to the sea.

3 Greek Islands Held by Fascists

ROME, May 1 (AP)—Italian parachutists have occupied the Greek islands of Cephalonia and Zante and the nearby island of Sana Maura has been taken over by Fascist land forces, the high command declared today.

All three islands are off the Greek west coast.

The high command also reported that Italian torpedo boats had attacked a convoy in the Aegean sea, torpedoing a cruiser and a large destroyer.

Man Will Get Out Of Debt to Bank In Year 2009

NEWARK, N. J., May 1 (INS)—John J. Dunne, a $20-a-week mechanic, today was under a federal order to pay $300.20 at the rate of $1 a week to the First National Bank of West New York, N. Y.

U. S. District Court Judge William Smith issued the order when he allowed a judgment sought by the bank against Dunne. The final payment, if made at the stipulated rate, would be turned over in the year 2009.

U. S. Plans Prepay-Tax Securities

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—Secretary Morgenthau announced today the Treasury was "working on a plan" to enable citizens to prepay their taxes under the heavy rates being considered by Congress.

He said he could not give details, but generally the Treasury was thinking of selling a special kind of security which could be used by taxpayers to pay their taxes instead of paying cash.

Thus, a man expecting to pay $150 income tax could prepare himself by buying a $10 security every month of the preceding year. When tax time came around, he would turn over the securities, and avoid the necessity of borrowing money or disturbing his personal budget in order to meet his tax bill.

Morgenthau said defense savings stamps and bonds, which went on sale today, were not adaptable to this purpose, and a different type of security was being studied.

Trio Guilty in Fraud Get Stay

Three men convicted of participating in a real estate fraud which the government termed "the cutest racket which has come to the attention of the district attorney's office in some time," today regained their hopes for freedom on appeal to the Supreme Judicial Court from sentences of one year each.

Judge Harold P. Williams granted a stay of execution in Middlesex Superior Court to the defendants, Charles L. McHugh, 51, of Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge; Charles D. Weather, 54, of Commonwealth Park, Newton, and James J. Mullane, 49, of Park View Ave., Lowell. Albert Wonderly, assistant district attorney, told the court during a lengthy trial the men purchased property from owners in involved deals in which they secured first mortgages larger than the cash amounts involved and then took the profit when the property was permitted to be foreclosed.

Col. Roosevelt Niece to Wed

Edith Roosevelt Derby, granddaughter of former President Theodore Roosevelt, and Andrew M. Williams, Jr., Harvard Law School senior, will be married June 14 at Christ Church, Oyster Bay, L. I., it was announced today.

Miss Derby is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Derby, graduated from St. Timothy's School, Catonsville, Md., studied abroad, and was associated with the education department of the American Museum of Natural History in New York.

She made her debut in 1936. She is a niece of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Kermit Roosevelt, Archibald Roosevelt and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, the former Alice Roosevelt Williams, who comes from New York city and York, Me., is a graduate of St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and Princeton University.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime many people have to get up at night. Frequent urination, backache, and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect the condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When function of these filters permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatism, eye pain, loss of sex and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 47 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

DIAPER SCENE IN MURAL STIRS MISSOURI CAPITAL

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 1 (AP)—Thomas Hart Benton, blunt speaking, sharp portrayal of life, today had been requested to efface two "offensive" scenes of his muralled "Social History of Missouri" from the walls of the state capitol.

Rep. David A. Hess, a St. Louis Democrat, introduced a bill asking the painter to remove the scene in which one boy thumbs his nose at another and the one depicting a farm wife pinning a diaper on a baby.

Hess objected, he said, because the mother's task "should in all cases be performed in more private surroundings."

The St. Louisian added the pictures should be removed or "so revised as that no figure, character or scene in said murals shall hereafter shock the nerves of esthetic patrons of classic art—the devotees of the placid and unexciting works of mere conservative painters of this and other ages."

Hess took exception to Benton's recent New York statement: "The average museum is a graveyard run by a pretty boy with a curving wrist and a swish in his gait. I'd like to sell (my paintings) to saloons, hawdy houses, Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs."

SLAV WARSHIPS SAFE

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—A Yugoslav submarine and two Yugoslav motor torpedo boats have arrived at a British port, the Admiralty announced today.

All in Britain Now Covered by Free Insurance

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—The government's damage risk insurance became effective today and every man, woman and child in Great Britain received free of charge a limited insurance policy covering damage to personal property as a result of the war. The free insurance limit is about $800 for a single householder and $1200 for a married householder, with about $100 extra for each child under 16. Individuals not classed as householders are limited to about $200.

Berlin Claims Destroyer Hit

BERLIN, May 1 (AP)—German warplanes patrolling British waters were reported today to have bombed a destroyer and left it in sinking condition late yesterday.

A 1000-ton freighter was claimed sunk off the east coast of Scotland and a 4000-ton merchantman was said to have been so seriously damaged that her destruction was considered likely.

German dive bombers late yesterday and last night were reported to have delivered another concentrated attack on the British Mediterranean island base of Malta. Pilots reported effective hits on dry docks at Valletta, Malta's chief harbor.

Valetta reported that two Nazi planes were shot down during the raid in which eight persons were killed and 12 were injured.

Berlin had a short air raid alarm last night, but an official announcement said hostile planes failed to reach the city.

RAF Bombs Berlin, Kiel

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—Strong Royal Air Force bomber squadrons centered their attack on the German naval base at Kiel last night, an air ministry communique said, and also hit at targets in the Berlin area, the industrial center of Hamburg and the port of Emden.

Other harassing raids were made yesterday on shipping off the Dutch coast, and a wireless station on an island off the Norwegian coast was bombed, the ministry said.

One British plane was reported lost in the attacks.

Gov. Saltonstall's Son Injured, Improves

Although confined to Stillman Infirmary with a football injury, Peter Saltonstall, son of the governor, today was reported in no danger.

Young Saltonstall suffered a slight concussion in one of the final spring football practices and was ordered to the infirmary as a precautionary measure. The youth alternates between center and blocking back.

TURK, NAZI PARLEY SEEN

ISTANBUL, Turkey, May 1 (INS)—Turkish Foreign Minister Sucre Saracoglu may be invited to Berlin for consultations with German officials before Franz von Papen, German ambassador to Turkey, returns to Ankara from Berlin, it was reported today.

31-2 Billion Naval Bill Before F. D.

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—The Senate sent to the White House today a $3,415,521,750 naval appropriations bill containing $1,515,000,000 to speed the construction of 729 vessels of all types under way in the two-ocean fleet program.

Adopting a conference report previously approved by the House, the Senate provided for an expenditure of $434,550,000 on naval aviation, of which $350,372,000 would be available for payments on 7129 planes now on order.

Included in the measure were funds to increase the enlisted personnel from 232,000 to 258,000, with 26,120 officers, as well as raising the enlisted strength of the marine corps to 50,566.

A total of $152,000,000 in cash and $150,000,000 in contract authority was provided for alterations and repairs to fighting ships, including modernization of the aircraft carriers Lexington and Saratoga.

Congress wrote into the measure a limitation of 2 per cent on commissions payable on land purchase contracts. It also provided for the purchase of Argentine canned beef and other foreign products by the Navy.

Fireman Hurt At Belmont Fire

One fireman was injured today in a blaze that caused damage estimated at $1000 to the two-story brick gatehouse of the Cambridge reservoir on Oshing ave., Belmont.

Originating near the oil burner on the first floor, flames shot through the roof of the structure, destroying delicate machinery used to measure water flow.

Fireman John Nugent was treated on the scene for a hand laceration.

$19-A-WEEK YIELDED BY HER DREAM MINE

HOLLYWOOD, May 1 (AP)—The West is spotted with dream mines. But it remained for a former New Jersey woman telephone operator to find one and to make her living from it single-handed.

Grace Finley, brown-haired, brown-eyed and 31, blasts out $19 worth of copper ore each week from her mine in the Mojave Desert 37 miles northwest of Barstow, Cal.

At the age of 18, Miss Finley came west for her vacation.

"The train stopped at Barstow," she recalled. "We all got off to eat, and afterwards I took a walk to look at the desert and the train went on without me." She has been there ever since.

"I dreamed that an angel came and took me by the hand and led me to a place and said, 'Dig here.' I didn't pay any attention, and then I dreamed the same thing the next night. So I dug there, just for fun, and I found the vein. But I still don't believe in dreams."

It takes a ton of ore to net Miss Finley $19 a week. When she started her desert life she weighed 102 pounds "and was a frail little thing." Now she weighs 158.

"That's from my work," she explained. "My mine is an inclined shaft 37 feet deep. I drill with steel, set off a charge and then muck out. The mucking is the hardest part."

She never has been to a night club or a circus or even a rodeo. This is her first visit to Hollywood.

In her spare time the lone woman miner crochets knits and tails, and writes poetry, about the still clearness of the desert at night, and whimsical, humorous poems for children.

Edison's Aide in Film Camera Work Dies

NEW YORK, May 1 (INS)—Edwin S. Porter, 71, collaborator with Thomas A. Edison on the invention of the motion picture camera, was dead today following an illness of two years. Considered the father of the story film, Porter created "The Great Train Robbery." In 1903, one of the most influential motion pictures of all time.

U. S. BUSINESS LEADERS ASK STRIKES MORATORIUM

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—A proposal for a moratorium on strikes in defense industries through the joint efforts of "patriotic labor and industrial leaders" was placed before the United States Chamber of Commerce today by its resolutions committee.

The proposed resolution also declared it to be "intolerable" that anyone should threaten to interrupt defense production "for purposes of coercion" and added that "such acts are offenses against the public safety, and offenders should be subjected to the penalties of the laws they violate."

Another proposed resolution, on "federal finance," called for a $3,000,000,000 reduction in non-defense expenditures and for tax increases in unspecified amounts which should be "limited in duration to the period of the emergency with the burden fairly distributed."

The resolution did not comment on the Administration's $3,500,000,000 defense tax program, but Ellsworth C. Alvord, chairman of the finance committee, in a speech this morning, described the methods by which the Treasury would raise the money as "severe and unrealistic."

He said the goal was "realistic," but suggested that with a $2,000,000,000 slash in non-defense outlays the government might raise $2,500,000,000 through a flat income tax increase and for excise and sales levies and possibly a small payroll tax. These, he declared, would place less burden on taxpayers in the $2000 to $20,000 class than would the Treasury's proposed methods.

Waste Blamed For Camp Cost

southern cantonments he already has reported on.

The War Department's original estimate for Camp Edwards was $7,240,462, Engel said, and provided for housing and caring for 26,762 officers and men.

"The present camp," he continued, "provided for 33,660 officers and men or an increase of approximately 6000 men. While the camp capacity was increased 22 per cent, the cost increased 300 per cent."

He also declared that taxes, insurance, contractors' and Army overhead, labor overtime and increased wage rates aggregated $7,834,943 "or $514,000 more than the original estimate of the cost of the entire project."

Engel asserted that from "60 to 65 per cent of the men drawing carpenter wages were not carpenters."

The Army's original estimate for utilities at the camp was $540,000, he continued, but the actual cost was $5,751,000—"more than ten times the original estimate."

'Natural Beauty' Queens See Hub Sights on Tour

Two most glamorous girls, Constance Joannes and Ellen Allardye—known as the "Ideal Natural Beauties of 1941"—did a bit of beauty sight-seeing of their own here today to begin a three-day Boston stopover in a nation-wide tour of North and South America.

Every beauty spot in the city, especially ancient Faneuil Hall and the Old South Church, were included on the itinerary of blonde and lovely Miss Allardye and the equally alluring Miss Joannes, a brunette.

The young ladies will have today to themselves, but tomorrow and Saturday they will appear in a miniature revue, "Make Up and Live," written for them by Lois Long, magazine writer, in the auditorium of the R. H. White Co. store at 11:30 a. m. and 3 p. m. each day.

SECRETS OF BEAUTY

The revue accentuates the ways and means these two beautiful girls employ makeup to enhance their natural appeal.

Although opposite in type of beauty, the girls have amazingly similar backgrounds, tastes and aspirations. Both are 19 years old. Although screen tested, both have refused Hollywood offers, preferring modeling careers to a life on the stage or in Hollywood.

The blonde Miss Allardye is five feet, eight inches tall, weighs 118 pounds, has large violet eyes and sports a honey blonde bob. She is from Hudson, N. Y.

Miss Joannes lives with her family in Woodridge, N. J., commuting to New York when modelling. She is five feet seven inches tall, weighs 110 pounds and has dark brown, naturally wavy hair and brown eyes.

5000 IN COMPETITION

They were chosen the ideal blonde and brunette type of the United States from among more than 5000 entrants in a nation-wide contest sponsored by a cosmetic firm.

A survey was made before the contest began to determine what American celebrities were most imitated by women of all ages.

The blondes were: Betty Grable, Sonja Henie, Clare Booth, Priscilla Lane and Mrs. William Rhineland-er Stewart.

Among brunettes the ideals of most women were: Brenda Frazier, Claudette Colbert, Linda Darnell, Carol Bruce and Deanna Durbin.

Schenck Quits as Head of Fox Films

NEW YORK, May 1 (INS)—Joseph M. Schenck, under sentence of three years for federal income tax evasion, announced here that he had resigned as chairman of the board of 20th Century-Fox Film day.

Schenck and his eastern representative, Joseph Moskowitz, have appealed the convictions. Moskowitz was sentenced to a year and a day.

British Experts Fear Invasion Attempt Near

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—Britain speculated today as to whether Adolf Hitler's next blow would be aimed at the Near East or at this island itself.

Some informed military circles said a grand scale German attack on Egypt and the Suez Canal by way of Syria and Palestine was likely within 10 days while others expressed belief the Nazi high command again was contemplating invasion of England very soon.

Some quarters firmly believed Hitler's next thrust would be at French-mandated Syria, with airborne troops moving in from Rhodes or other eastern Mediterranean islands, and thence at Palestine and Suez. Such a move would by-pass Turkey.

Simultaneously, they said, German and Italian forces in Libya would renew their offensive toward the Suez Canal from the west in an effort to close a giant military pincer.

U. S. AID A FACTOR

Other experts, however, reasoned Germany was aiming now at the long-threatened invasion of England.

"Hitler has been successful thus far," a spokesman of this group said, "because he has done what he was not counted on to do. He is expected to turn to the Near East, so he may try to land here."

They said their reasons for thinking that invasion might be imminent included:

1—There is favorable weather ahead.

2—The Luftwaffe has been hitting Plymouth and Portsmouth naval bases especially hard in the last fortnight.

3—German long range guns in France have been far more active recently.

4—German E-boats have been very busy in the channel.

5—Daylight reconnaissance has been vastly increased.

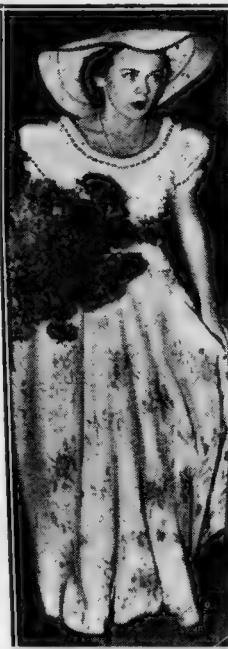

6—Aid from the United States is increasing in volume.

The middle east command, using words reminiscent of those employed to tell of the great withdrawal from Dunkirk 11 months ago, said the withdrawal from Greece was a "noteworthy achievement" by the navy, the merchant service and the air force.

Another British effort to withdraw British personnel in the Balkans failed, however, the admiralty reported.

The British submarine Regent lay in the Yugoslav harbor for Kotor for nine hours last Saturday, surrounded by Italians, in a vain effort to embark the British minister to Yugoslavia and his staff, before being driven away.

The minister, Ronald Ian Campbell, and his staff are stranded in Durazzo, Albania.

British and Nazi Plane Loss Nearly Even in April

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—Increased air clashes by Great Britain and Germany during April cost the Germans 113 planes over and around Britain and the British 106 planes over the continent returning home, British said today.

German loss, they said, included 87 night bombers and most of the British losses also were bombers.

The British claimed that 3306 German planes have been downed over and around Britain since the beginning of the war and admitted the loss of 663 planes over Britain and of 594 which failed to return from raids on the continent.

Spain Forms Company To Build Warplanes

MADRID, Spain, May 1 (AP)—The Spanish government today announced creation of a corporation to manufacture bombing and military transport planes.

With a capitalization of 30,000,000 pesetas ($2,760,000), it will be the largest manufacturing enterprise of its kind on the Iberian peninsula.

Indian Prince Gives Britain Patrol Ship

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—The admiralty acknowledged today receipt of a gift of $600,000 from the Indian prince, the Nizam of Hyderabad, for construction of a corvette, and announced one of the patrol vessels now building would be named Hyderabad in his honor.

Pope Makes New Plea for Peace

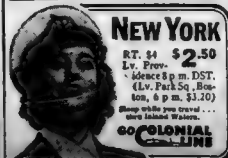

VATICAN CITY, May 1 (INS)—Pope Pius XII offered a new appeal for peace today in an address to the Sisters of Perpetual Adoration.

"The church now needs imperiously the most ardent prayers to implore and obtain from God a victorious grace which will conquer the most inflexible will, in order to permit a revival of brotherly love."

"Ceaseless prayer for Divine mercy is needed until concord returns to peoples and peaceful tranquility returns to the world."

BOSTON After DARK

By GEORGE HOLLAND

JOHNNY MARQUAND, HARVARD, '15, MAY AS WELL not have written a book entitled H. M. Pulham, Esq., for all the discouraging effect it will have on the reunion next month of the class of Harvard, '16 . . .

It seems fair (to the class of '16) to establish a few points at once because startling stories are going the rounds that the Johnny Harvard class of '16, have been so disturbed by Johnny Marquand's bitter writing that they plan to call off this year's 25th reunion.

"TAINT" SO at all . . . the regular class treasurer, a gentleman named Busk, and the class' reunion day treasurer, Mr. Donald A. Watson, both scoffed at the rumor that the 1916 graduates are trying to duck the ribbing, seemingly in store for them in June . . . for as nearly everyone knows H. M. Pulham, Esq., was the town-squire, Marquand at his tongue, and his subject was the 25th reunion of a Harvard class.

BY BAD CESS this happens to be the year when the class of '16 observes its 25th anniversary of graduation . . . of course no particular Harvard class was singled out as the butt of Mr. Marquand's 400-page joke . . . Nevertheless it falls to the lads of '16 to step up to the plate as celebrants of this year's silver anniversary—bare few months after the Marquand book hit the stalls to be greeted as a masterpiece of satire.

THE 25TH REUNION is the most important of all class reunions at Harvard . . . when a class has been at large in the world for 25 years, its members are presumed to have struck their stride in life . . . hence it is an ivy shrouded tradition that each class will present $100,000 to alma mater as a token of appreciation.

WELL, THE CLASS OF '16 WILL reunite . . . But (and this has nothing to do with Mr. Marquand) the class may ask for a raincheck in the game of handing over the customary 100 G notes . . . It is a tough scramble raising that much money—"world conditions" being what they are, a class official confided.

SOME of this money has been raised, but the chances are right now that the class will pull up lame—with "the shorts" as "the boys" call it . . . Bill Bingham, who is the class marshal, undoubtedly will deny that a problem about the donation exists as Mr. Bingham has had a lot of practice in denials we can have no ready answer . . . Nevertheless, in running down the story of the rumored reaction to Mr. Marquand's lampooning at all class reunions, your reporter learned that the contributions are quite slow in coming in.

THE BUSINELL THREAT is upsetting more than one city and town . . . The new attorney-general was hailed as a "crusader" . . . he has made no gesture towards step-pling into local communities as a special pleader against alleged vice but his office is being most meticulous in citing names and addresses which have appeared in written complaints to him.

A FEW MORE WORDS about Teddy Powell, the orchestra leader . . . with every temptation in the world to "go Broadway"—which is quite as becoming as "going Hollywood"—the good-looking Mr. Powell continues to be the same affable kid who wore himself out doing favors for others when he popped up on Broadway six or seven years ago . . . And Teddy wasn't just a pleasant stage-struck kid . . . He had talent . . . His first major effort at song-writing resulted in a huge hit—one of those Westerns ("Boots and Saddles," as we recall) . . . With royalties pouring in, Teddy nevertheless took over the job of press-agent of the Paradise, then a successful Broadway night club.

IN THIS CAPACITY, young Mr. Powell endeared himself to all the working press of New York—and the visiting firemen, too . . . These contacts proved of some value (although not quite enough) when he launched his own band . . . Teddy poured his hard-earned little fortune into an unsuccessful attempt to launch that band himself (without the aid of the chain-store operators of the band-rack-etc) . . . It must have cost him $20,000, and the band didn't click . . . But it's clicking now . . . And if the ASCAP-BMI feud is ever settled, Teddy will be able to supplement his song-writing with a first-class plugging instrument, a major band whose repertory of songs he can choose himself.

IT IS TOO BAD England lost the great John Buchan (Lord Tweedsmuir) . . . A bit late, we have just finished his book, "Mountain Meadow" . . . It doesn't rate to a climax like Buchan's "39 Steps" or his masterful "Greenmantle," but the writing has a philosophic lift, which is both inspiring and soothing.

MAY, a traditionally happy month is here, and thousands of young New Englanders are saying to themselves:

"How am I going to fare when the June examinations are over?"

Of course, we are passing through a hectic period of our national history and prophecies are uncertain at best.

Much depends on the ability of the government to avoid active participation in the European war.

But, in spite of the generally upset state of the world, the immediate future of this June's graduate seems brighter and more hopeful.

For this, we have the word of no less an authority than Mer-ryle Stanley Rukeyser, distinguished economic commentator.

"Expanding industrial activity and the concurrent growth of the armed forces," says Mr. Rukeyser, "are providing a fresh answer to the youth problem. There is no longer the depression psychology that there is no niche for the new graduate."

"In 1911, we are at last aware of the technocratic nonsense of 1932, when theorists were prattling fallaciously about excessive manpower and excessive productive facilities."

"With the current effort to meet both defense requirements and the needs of civilians, we have a new appreciation that well-trained men and superior tools are valuable national assets, not troublesome liabilities."

"The employer especially likes newcomers who have thoughtfully analyzed where they could fit into a particular business operation."

Truly fortunate is the young man who has equipped himself for a useful trade.

Our booming New England defense industries need and will use him.

THE MONTH OF MAY has always been associated with festivities and public rejoicing.

The passing of Winter and the approach of Summer have gladdened every nation and every age.

As long as two thousand years ago the ancient Romans played their magnificent floral games at this time.

Everybody decorated his home with the brightest flowers he could find and united with his neighbors in song and dance.

Throughout the Middle Ages it was customary for villages and cities to erect great poles in their squares.

On the first morning of May the people suspended wreaths of flowers from these poles and then danced in rings around them until sunset.

In England and Ireland the most beautiful girls in each hamlet were dressed in the finest garments obtainable, placed on thrones and crowned Queens of the May.

These merry revels continued, year after year, up to the appearance of the Puritans, who, in their campaigns to take the joy out of life, caused May-poles to be uprooted and put a stop to all the celebrations.

Today we have May processions and May Queens in many of our educational and ecclesiastical institutions, but the universal jollity has never been revived.

This is unfortunate.

A national or international day of rejoicing that would inspire all the people to forget cares and troubles and to get out in the open air and enjoy the beauties of nature would be a much-needed step forward in the direction of peace.

Too many persons have lost sight of the wonderful world in which they are privileged to live.

They prefer to dwell in a little, mental world of their own creation, and it is not always attractive.

The Catholic Church has wisely made this May a month of prayer for peace.

In the next four weeks, millions will ask God's help to end the European war and to avert further suffering and loss of life.

We can think of no better prayer or no more appropriate time to make it.

to make it.

CROWNING MAY QUEEN
Every City Did This Once

The Talk of Boston by Pauline Warren

THERE is a little girl in this town you might like to read about. She is only 16 years of age and her name is Sally Sears. You may have heard one of her songs quite a bit lately, "Sub-Deb Blues," as it's been played fairly often by dance bands and radio orchestras.

On the cover of the sheet music, Count Basie is given credit for having written the music and Sally is mentioned for the lyrics, but even the Count implies that the music is mostly Sally's. This is not Sally's first song. She has several others to her credit.

Two years ago, when she was only 14, she had a novelette published which was all about night clubs, giving fairly accurate accounts of the doings in such places.

It had quite a sale, too, and was praised by the critics for its accuracy, a fact which puzzled Sally somewhat, since she never in her life had been inside of a night club.

After that she wrote a few short stories, which were published in various magazines.

She also has the distinction of having the largest record library in town. So great is her collection that a special room had to be built to house it. She catalogued it all herself, and it was an endless job.

HER SYSTEM is good; she can tell you almost instantaneously who is playing which instrument in the recording of almost any piece she owns. She has nearly all the records in which Benny Goodman participated when he was an obscure clarinetist, jumping from band to band.

She is such an eye-fut that when she showed up to make her radio debut at a local station there was no work done by that organization for the rest of the afternoon. The bewitched radio men gazed at the long copper hair, the slanting blue eyes, the luscious curves, and found it pretty difficult to concentrate on their work.

But Sally remained completely unaware of the hubbub she created and kept her sweet little nose completely buried in a copy of her favorite magazine until it was time for her to go on the air.

She attended Foxcroft School in Virginia, where she outrode anyone in that fence-jumping, fox-hunting country. Now she is studying at Columbia University, all the subjects on music, composition and science that the school will allow her.

HER mother, Mrs. Francis P. Sears, who is one of the handsomest and smartest young matrons in Boston, has promised her one hundred dollars on her 21st birthday if she has not smoked a cigarette till then. Sally, who admires her mother extravagantly, rigidly refrains from smoking more to please her mother than to win the money.

Mother and daughter are active in the Myopia Hunt Club, as hard riding a club as you can find anywhere in the country. It is the oldest, of course, and also the most distinguished. Mrs. Sears rides side saddle, taking the high jumps with a grace which is sheer pleasure to watch. Sally when she is at home likes to take care of her favorite horse herself.

When she's not riding, writing or composing, she swims, dives and plays tennis. She likes the hard-bitten school of fiction and regards Hemingway as an oracle. Not out yet, she will probably be making her debut this year or next. But the beaux are already numerous and she could probably have dozens more if she had more time to play. Her ballroom dancing is good enough for exhibitions.

Definitely we have it on our calendar to look her up ten years from now.

WHEN Lawrence Tibbett sang at one of the Morning Musicales, for which Boston is famous, he endeared himself to a few workmen in a way they can never forget.

Just as the audience of abled, mimked and orchided ladies came out, they noticed a huge crowd waiting eagerly at the bottom of the stairs of the Statler ballroom.

Since the musicales are always sold out months in advance, the concert had not been advertised. Consequently, the ladies-of-the-committee were greatly puzzled as to how these thousands of women, obviously waiting for autographs, or just a glimpse of Mr. Tibbett, could have found out he was singing in Boston that morning. Told of the thousands waiting to mob him, Mr. Tibbett seemed quite startled and just as puzzled.

All was soon explained, however, when a workman came on the stage, tugging at a stove, just as the last of the audience was filing out.

It seems this newspaper—the American—was staging a cooking school on the same stage, directly after the concert, and these thousands were the first arrivals.

Very much relieved they hadn't come to "mob" him, and his vanity not at all piqued, Mr. Tibbett, noticing that time was short, pitched right in and helped the workmen.

As we looked back, we saw all six feet of him gallantly pushing an ice-box into place. And that, ladies and gentlemen, was the artist who had earned thousands of dollars for just one hour's singing and sent home an audience of two thousand wealthy women rapturous with his praise.

We wish they had seen him pushing that ice-box. He was fine in that role, too.

GIFT FAILS TO WIN
MAUGHAM

W. S. Maugham

By Leonard Lyons

NEW YORK, May 1—When W. Somerset Maugham was in San Francisco recently, he was asked to autograph one of his books—for a local dealer. Maugham obliged, and the next day the happy dealer sent the author a box of cigars . . . A few days after Maugham returned to New York City he received a phone call from a man who was eager to meet him. "You remember the dealer in San Francisco," the stranger identified—"the one who sent you a box of cigars after you autographed his book? Well, I'm that man's brother" . . . "Frankly," said Maugham, as he hung up, "I don't think the relationship is close enough" . . . Herman Shumlin—who produced and directed the current hits, "The Corn Is Green" and "Watch on the Rhine"—was backstage at the National Theater when he learned that both plays had won the Drama Critics' Circle prize . . . Shumlin was busy at the time, rehearsing some of the cast of "The Corn Is Green"—although the show has been a hit for many months—because he wanted their performances to remain fresh . . . Just as he was about to rehearse the third act, Shumlin was called to the phone—and learned of the prizes. He reported this to the cast, and then told Thelma Schner, "Now let's go on with the third act. . . . As long as you won both prizes," Miss Schner suggested, "how about taking time off, to celebrate?" . . . "Oh, no, let's continue rehearsing," replied Shumlin. "That's how I won both prizes."

DIGNITY: This month, Eleanor Early's book, "An Island Patchwork," will be published. In it, she will tell the story of how the "gentleman-from-the-Transcript" legend originated: President Edward Everett of Harvard, wrote to King Frederick VII about a comet which had been discovered in Nantucket. The King was giving prizes for fresh comets, and President Everett was anxious to secure one for the home town. . . . Everett reported this to the press, and when the newsmen flocked to his door, his servant announced them: "Three reporters from the papers, sir—and a gentleman from the Transcript."

ENTERPRISE: Douglas Leigh, whose illuminated signs now decorate all of Broadway, was a college classmate of Sam Byrd, the actor-producer. They came to Broadway almost simultaneously, determined to match each other's success. When Byrd—after a long appearance in "Tobacco Road"—produced his own show, Leigh made the electric sign for him. . . . Last month Leigh contracted to write his autobiography—although he's still under 39—for a New York publisher. Last week Byrd came to his office, placed a publishing contract and a dime in front of Leigh, and said: "I not only match you, but I beat you" . . . The contract was for the publication of Byrd's book, "Small Town South." The dime was a deposit paid by the man who reserved the first copy—another writer, named Sinclair Lewis.

SUCCESS: Last Friday the Experimental Theater presented George Corey's "Not in Our Stars." A director went backstage later to get Corey's signature to a contract for a Broadway presentation. "I think you're too late," the director was told. "Three producers are talking to Corey right now. They're Dwight Wiman, William A. Brady and You-Know-Who." The latter is the senior member of an old, powerful producing firm . . . "Where's Corey now?" the director asked . . . "There he is—against the wall," was the answer . . . "If he's against the wall," sighed the director, as he left, "then You-Know-Who must have him."

LAMENT: Jackie Webb, of the Vanderbilt clan, enlisted for a three-year hitch in the Air Corps. He now is stationed in California. His uniform consists of a hat, shirt, tie and trousers—but no jacket except for a leather one which is used only in unexpected cold weather . . . Webb flew to New York last week-end. He went to the night clubs, but couldn't get past the inner rope—because he wasn't wearing a jacket. And so the Vanderbilt kinsman slipped his beer in the outer lobbies, explaining to all his friends that he might try to arrange for a transfer to a cold-weather station, where the uniforms include jackets—so that he may get by the nightclub doors.

CITIZENS of the United States disagree about too many things. It seems a wise policy at this time would be for us to be in accord on as many matters as possible, without, of course, sacrificing our ideals. For instance, should it be pronounced "to-MAY-to" or "to-MAH-to"? I have no hesitation in saying without qualification that I favor "to-MAY-to." We do not say "po-TAH-to" and, therefore, I ask you why would we say "to-MAH-to"? To those of you who are in accord with this department let me warn you our opposition on the matter is formidable. Drew Pearson of Pearson and Allen says "to-MAH-to." Next week at this same time we shall discuss the matter as to whether salad should be served at the beginning of a meal, with the entree or after the entree. The week after we shall take up the question regarding the pronunciation of St. Louis and Louisville. Should it be "Saint Lewis" or "Saint Loolee," "Lewisville" or "Looleeville?" Incidentally, there seems to be no need to discuss whether it should be Kentucky "Darby" or Kentucky "Derby." The latter is correct. Rosalind Russell is the only one still insisting on pronouncing it "Darby."

FILM STARS have been advised by experts their taxes will come to about 60 per cent of their earnings and have been advised to put aside $600 of every $1000 they earn weekly in order to have enough money at the end of the year to pay their tax bill.

WHY IS THERE so much Nazi propaganda on the Havana radio which broadcasts to Central and South America? It's about time Uncle Sam learned definitely who his friends are . . . Co-eds of a California university decided their patriotic duty was to attend Army training camp dances. Men students of the college whimpered, whined, and sobbingly protested this decision. Wrote a male student in the college paper: "The virtue of the girls won't be safe among 6000 soldiers." And so managed to pack two insults into one sentence. Maybe more; an insult to the co-eds, one to the soldiers and another to the millions of American women who went to Army camp dances during the last war. However, I guess the Army and our feminine friends will have no difficulty in laughing off the bit-wit attitude of these curious collegians.

"WHAT BECAME OF Anastasia Reilly?" is Bostonian's query. Sir, if you mean the highly glamorous Follies girl she is now Mrs. T. D. Buhl, wife of a Detroit millionaire . . . "F. D. R. Fears Nazis in Greenland" is one newspaper headline; and another paper heads the same story: "F. D. R. Says Nazis in Greenland." I much prefer the latter. Let's stop using that word "fear" in connection with the Nazis or any other nation . . . August Hecksher, who lived to be 94, advised those who wished to live long: "Get married, eat less, if you drink, drink less."

MY DAY By Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt

OAKLAND, Cal., Wednesday—Yesterday morning in Los Angeles I visited Judge Shontz' court. It is a court of the little people who have claims for sums of money under $50. I found it very interesting sitting beside her listening for a few minutes to their problems. From there we visited the Assistance League, a really remarkable organization, which is sponsored by a number of Los Angeles women. I gathered that Mrs. Hancock Banning is the most active and moving force. I saw a day nursery with the children actually at play out of doors and lunch in preparation; a place for the older boys to do craft work and play games out of doors, a library, a girls' recreation club and a welfare department where people are helped to get jobs and where the placement record is high.

We also visited the thrift shop, the craft shop, the sewing rooms and the tea room, where women interested in this charity earn much of the money which is given to the support of the other undertakings. It seemed a very busy spot, spread out over quite an area, but full of hope for the betterment of the conditions of the people in that part of the city. This is indicated by the fact that juvenile delinquency has dropped 64 per cent since the establishment of the boys' and girls' recreation classes.

WE WENT BACK to Mrs. Douglas' in time to see a really remarkable collection of craftwork done by the Mexican-American youngsters in NYA groups. Though weaving and ceramics have only been taught for three months, they would be a credit to workers of much longer experience. Finally, a last visit with young Mrs. James Roosevelt and a very quiet lunch before starting at 2 o'clock to drive to Hanford, Cal.

On our arrival we drove around the very charming town of Hanford. After the lecture we took the night train for Oakland, where we are now about to board a plane on our way to Europe, Ore.

Hollywood Today DONLEVY WRITES FILM STORY

By Louella O. Parsons

Brian Donlevy

HOLLYWOOD, May 1—Brian Donlevy isn't waiting for somebody to find the right story for him. He's written an original for himself titled "Dutch Treat" which Tay Garnett will produce with Brian just as soon as they finish "Three Sheets in the Wind." In spite of the title the story hasn't anything to do with paying your own check. It deals with the underground movement now so strong in Holland of "harassing" German soldiers by supposedly subdued private citizens. The conduct of the Hollanders has been a thorn in the Nazi side ever since the invasion.

Speaking of Brian—He's doing some fast talking at home to keep his very attractive wife, Marjorie, from accepting a couple of movie deals herself. She's so pretty and one of the best dressed women in Hollywood and as Marjorie Lane she was doing very well for herself before she became Mrs. D. and settled down to decorate the new Donlevy home out near the Ty Powers and the Gary Coopers.

TY POWER, busier than a one-armed paper hanger going from picture to picture on the 20th lot, had a little talk with his boss, Darryl Zanuck, about a summer vacation. The outcome was that Ty gets two vacations tossed into one and he and Annabella will spend three months in Alaska cruising up the coast on a boat Ty's renting. In the meantime 20th has bought Rafael Sabatini's "The Black Swan" for their fair haired boy—and if Ty makes all the pictures scheduled for him he'll be gray haired. If you've heard these before stop me—but he has "Blood and Sand," "Yank in the RAF," "Brooklyn Bridge," "Down to the Sea in Ships" and "Benjamin Blake" coming up.

WHEN KAY FELTUS married Bob Preston she was a lot of talk that she was headed for a movie career of her own. But nothing much happened until today I heard that Kay gets the femme lead in the next Bill Thomas-Bill Pine picture, "Flying Blind." You have to hand it to these two boys, who used to be praise agents. They have made two of these aviation pictures on a shoe string and they are so good they've been booked into first run houses all over the country. Well, after selling other people's pictures for so many years they should know how to sell their own.

THE HAPPIEST BRIDE in Hollywood is Constance Bennett, who makes no secret of saying, "This is really the marriage that counts." She and Gilbert Roland, who over a period of ten years have been good friends, seem to both be completely happy. They are really serious about appearing together in "Starvation on Red River," the Zoe Akins play in New York. In fact they read the script and liked it but Connie first has "King Rubber" to do at Warners and Gilbert is also booked for another Warner movie. And just last week along came another picture offer for them to appear together, so Connie and Gilbert are right now sitting on top of the world.

SNAPSHOTS OF HOLLYWOOD: Mitch Leisen's circus revue at the Cocolanut Grove brought out the town. Norma Shearer, very blonde now, looked stunning in a violet gown with eyeshadow the exact shade. Norma was with Jeff Kessel, the writer, in a party with the Charles Boyers and the John Lodgers. Bill Daniel's tight rope walking dance had Pat Ziegfeld and her dancer-husband applauding enthusiastically; Linda Darnell with Robert Jolley, wore a prini dress of green and white carnations and two carnations in her hair.

"LUCKY" HUMBERSTONE is in the Cedars of Lebanon after his car hit a soft shoulder in Coldwater Canyon and turned over. He was on his way to the studio to direct Sonja Henie in "Sun Valley Serenade" when the accident happened. John Shelton at the Seven Seas with Ronnie Warner who used to be engaged to Tom Brown; wish I could have made the trip to Santa Barbara to see my favorite son-in-law, King Kennedy with Mary Boland in "Meet the Wife." Margaret Lindsay was there with Charlie Wendling, Claudette Colbert's brother.

Wheeler's Peace Talk Rouses Hub

posts, who preceded Wheeler, said they would be glad to have the President call them "Copperheads"—a term he applied to Lindbergh—and declared against war.

Wheeler said propaganda has been used to influence the public mind.

"You have been propagandized by radio, motion pictures and newspapers," he said. "They have sought to create a war psychology. But the first stage is over. Your preparation for conflict is coming to an end. You have been softened for a declaration of war."

ONE STEP REMAINS

"Only one final step remains. That will come if the American people accept patrols and convoys. After that you will not be asked to accept war. You will be ordered into battle."

"On Tuesday, President Roosevelt stated that American patrols would enter war zones. If you accept patrols and convoys without protest to your congressmen, your senator and your President, they will send this nation to its democratic doom, to war."

"I say to the President that, to order patrols or convoys through war zones is to violate the Constitution and to repudiate his oath of office. The President, as commander-in-chief of the Army and Navy, may have the power to order our Navy into combat areas, but he does not have the right."

"To convoy is to participate in war and only Congress can declare war. To wage an undeclared war violates the Constitution and convoys or patrols mean shooting and shooting is certainly war, declared or undeclared."

ASKS DIVINE GUIDANCE

Wheeler came out for an appeal to the Pope and to the leadership of all the churches of America.

"Because our President has not seen fit to lead the nations of the world to sanity and peace, let us, today, appeal for divine guidance," he pleaded.

"In the name of the Prince of Peace who was crucified upon the cross to save mankind, let the leaders of all churches unite in a demand that humanity lay down the sword of brutality and resume the ways of peace and happiness."

He urged that Americans be realistic and governed by reason, not emotion.

"If we become a British ally how could we conquer Hitler?" he questioned. "To vanquish Germany the Nazis must be driven back to Berlin."

"I am not anti-British. No blood but English flows through my veins. I hate Hitlerism and all it symbolizes. But I do want to be practical."

"I am not a quitter. But I have seen Britain quit Europe with well trained armies as allies. I am like all Americans, I would fight for America until the very end. And I think I am like the great majority of Americans when I say I do not approve of fighting Europe's wars."

Newton Hit-Run Driver Jailed

Sebastian F. Vigilio of Florence st., Newton Center, 48-year-old gardener, was sentenced to a year in the House of Correction on a hit-and-run charge today by Judge Donald Mayberry in Newton court.

Vigilio previously had pleaded guilty to operating the auto that seriously injured Mario D'Innocenzo, 17, and Quintino Vasta, 15, both of Newton, on the Worcester turnpike last March 24.

Police arrested Vigilio after Ernest D'Innocenzo, Jr., 14, brother of Mario, traced fragments of a headlight lens found at the scene to Vigilio's car.

WHOLE NATION RESPONDS TO F. D.'S BOND SALE PLEA

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—Urged by President Roosevelt to participate in the nation's "all-out effort to perpetuate democracy," Americans young and old stepped up to postoffice and bank windows today to begin investing in defense savings bonds and stamps.

Public sale of the new securities started throughout the country today. The President led the way last night, launching the bond sale program in a nationally broadcast address. He announced he was buying a bond—of $500 denomination, the White House said later—for Mrs. Roosevelt, and 10 defense savings stamps (25-cent denomination) for each of his grandchildren.

In "a frank and clear appeal for financial support to pay for our arming, and to pay for the American existence of later generations," the President expressed hope that the sale of bonds and stamps would "reach down to the individual and the family in every community, and on every farm, in every state and every possession of the United States."

For, he declared, the threat that the nation would guard against "can be found on the threshold of every home in America." Distance no longer is a guarantee of safety, he said, and defenses which were adequate 10 years ago are "a broken reed" today.

"With jobs more plentiful and wages higher," he observed, "slight sacrifice here, the omission of a few luxuries there, will swell the coffers of our federal treasury."

AMERICANISM and NATIONAL UNITY

NEVER was the need for national unity of purpose more apparent than it is today. With the ominous clouds of war hovering on the horizon, one task alone is all important—National Defense. The purpose of National Defense is two-fold—it prepares us for the eventuality of war—and it serves notice to the dictatorial powers of the world that the overthrow of our democratic ideals is a task to be approached with care.

To attain this efficient standard of defense, personal ambitions—personal gains, and even personal rights must be submerged for the common good.

This is the time for co-operation—the time when every man must unselfishly do his job—be he of the management or laboring classes.

This is the time for the tightening of the belt—the setting of the jaw—the preparation of the nation in its time of trial.

EVENING AMERICAN, THURSDAY, MAY 1, 1941

By AUSTEN LAKE
STAFF REPORTER, BOSTON AMERICAN
(Copyright, 1941)

ENVIRONS OF LONDON, April.—It was Sunday, and we—Capt. Bill Abel of Canadian Military H. Q. and I—were rolling along a bush-bordered lane under an arcade of spiral elms. The captain was conversing leisurely on the subject of invasion—"... it would be a holocaust," he growled.

Around us the slanting fingers of late afternoon sunshine pierced a veil of mist, giving the land behind an appearance of being painted on silk.

"It would be an unprecedented massacre," he said.

Suddenly from behind a rubble wall, a helmeted man in battle dress rose, lifted his rifle at a high port and bawled, "Halt! His thumb was on the breech bolt of his Enfield and a shiny bayonet reflected the glints of the sun.

It was startling, and the captain jerked from his reverie with a screech of brakes, craning his neck around as a soldier approached with that in the swing of his shoulders which promised a little manly carriage.

"Don't you challenge like that again, from ambush," snapped the captain irritably. "You'd have shot, wouldn't you?"

"Yes, sir," said the home guardman with conviction. "A man in his middle forties. That's my orders. This area is under troop maneuvers."

MANY AT DRILLS

The captain shrugged, produced identification cards and added a little pettily:

"All right, but just be certain before you fire."

"Yes, sir," said the soldier, snapping boot heels in a punctilio salute, "Pass on."

We traveled slowly and cautiously through the region where home guardmen were deploying in tactical problems, little units which move over the scenery in guerrilla bands, unlike the massed waves of skirmishers in the previous war. Here and there groups clustered around a Bren gun, while a sergeant demonstrated the short-barreled apparatus. Occasionally in village streets, a company would be drawn up in close order drill or listening "at ease" while an officer lectured on a tactical problem.

These were some of Britain's million-strong home guardists. "Sunday soldiers," part-time civilian-Tommies who augment the regular army and practice rear area action over week-ends. Tough old roosters they are mostly, relics from the previous World War—artisans, professional men, craftsmen who work six days of the week, and do military service on the Sabbath—fantastic to the remote, peace-conscious American mind, but a casual part of English war routine.

USE U. S. RIFLES

Every English, Welsh and Scotch neighborhood has its home guard unit, under regional command and co-ordinated with London's War Office. Each is allotted its defense area with explicit orders of operation. Each outfit knows its immediate terrain like a fox knows surrounding rabbit warrens. And each officer has his weekly tactical problem, peculiar to the topographical lay of the land. I noticed from inspecting the stacked rifles that they were old-pattern Enfields and Springfielders with the U. S. Army stamp and dating from the previous war—weapons shipped abroad in recent convoys and distributed by lorry loads.

There are former majors and captains of the 1914-18 BEF functioning as privates in the ranks under ex-sergeants, graying men with bulges and curves where 20 years ago they had flat and hollow men who correspond in age and experience to our own American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

But there is no glamour left in war now—no thumping drums, skirl of bagpipes or blurring martial music, just the grim, grimy reality of war's drudge and the prospect of blood, sweat and danger. The immaculate whipcords, mirror-polished boots, shiny hardware hanging from Sam Browne belts and starched parade dress is gone.

Only in London do staff personnel affect any of the old war's social swank. And the others, on active service wear the heavy battle woollens which, in utility and appearance, resemble the dungarees of an auto mechanic with only the tiny embroidered shoulder "pips" to distinguish men of officers.

"Moppers up" the home guard is sometimes called, men detailed to the less rigorous duties of spotting parachutists, controlling the panic of local civilian, administering fatherly advice, and standing steady in their neighborhoods with no retreat.

Indeed I have discovered that the British government has ignored no detail in its counter-invasion plan, even to explicit instructions to the civil population via printed pamphlets, little catechisms entitled, "What To Do If The Invader Comes—Official."

It is grotesque to an American mind, this laconic, matter-of-fact acceptance that, at any time a flotilla of Martian men might mushroom from the skies and set up war's scientific gadgetry—with wholesale death and destruction as the object.

KEEP ROADS OPEN

The leaflet, carrying a special message from Premier Winston Churchill, reads, in part:

Question—What shall I do if fighting breaks out in my neighborhood?

Answer—Don't move. Stay indoors or in your shelters until the battle is over.

For the British, memorable of the refugee-clogged roads of France the hysteria of women and children evacuees heightened by Nazi dive bombing and machine gunning, propose to keep their highways open for troop movements without blockade by frenzied stragglers.

Question—What does it mean when the church bells are rung?

Answer—It is a warning to the local garrison that enemy troops have been seen landing from the air.

Question—Should I put my car, lorry or motor bicycle out of action?

Answer—Yes, when you are told to do so by the police, ARP or home guard, or when it is obvious that there is immediate risk of its being seized by the enemy.

Question—What should be my behavior in event of capture?

Answer—Do not tell the enemy anything. Do not give him any way. Do not help him in any way.

Question—Should I defend myself against the enemy?

Answer—You have the right of every man and woman to do what you can to protect your family and home.

USE COMMON SENSE

There is, in one of the answers a bit of unintentional naïveté which reveals a nationalistic egotism, at once the vice and virtue of the English people. In reply to how a citizen might detect the difference between a bogus British soldier and the genuine article, the answer is, "with a bit of common sense you can tell if a soldier is really British or only pretending to be so." Presumably every authentic Tommy drops his "He's."

The London press also carries occasional lectures to complement the weekly instructions on "How to put out an incendiary bomb," such as the one in the Sunday Dispatch by Air Correspondent J. D. S. Alan, entitled, "What to do if you are machine-gunned."

"Fewer in number, than machine gun bullets are the small cannon shells," pontificates Alan, with a seriousness that seems fantastic to Americans. "These are exceedingly dangerous if they explode inside a room. The time to select the safest spot and to train the children to reach them is now."

It sums up gradually to a visiting correspondent's consciousness that there is only a thin wavering line between a sane and a mad world, and in the words of some forgotten philosopher, "Nature is hostile and man is ridiculous."

Follow Austen Lake's graphic account of Britain at war in tomorrow's Boston Evening American.

HOME GUARD — "These were some of Britain's million-strong home guardists, 'Sunday soldiers,' part-time civilian-Tommies who augment the regular army and practice rear guard action over the week-ends. Tough old roosters they are mostly..."

JEAN ARTHUR RETURNS TO GAY COMEDY IN NEW KEITH MEMORIAL FEATURE

Salesgirl Role Pleases Star

Teaming three leading screen favorites for the first time, the new Keith Memorial attraction, "The Devil and Miss Jones," marks Jean Arthur's return to gay comedy after her recent portrayal of a Western heroine in "Arizona."

Robert Cummings and Charles Coburn have the top featured roles in the star's new vehicle, in which she enacts the part of an impulsive and warm-hearted salesgirl in a huge department store where romance and personnel troubles go hand-in-hand.

Cummings, recently seen in "Spring Parade," has the lead opposite Miss Arthur as a fiery young idealist. Coburn, following his role in "The Lady Eve," plays the part of a multi-millionaire who adopts an alias to investigate an employee's revolt in his store.

Supporting the three principals are Edmund Gwenn, Spring Byington, S. Z. Sakall, William Demarest and others. Sam Wood, director of "Citty Foyle," directed the Frank Ross production for RKO Radio from Norman Krasna's original story.

The second feature, "They Met in Argentina," stars Maureen O'Hara. An additional program attraction is the new Walt Disney color cartoon, "Pantry Pirate."

JEAN ARTHUR was happy to play salesgirl in her latest film, "The Devil and Miss Jones," opening today at the Keith Memorial.

Paderewski Film On So. Station Bill

Paderewski, playing his three famed musical selections, "Moonlight Sonata," "Second Hungarian Rhapsody" and "Polonaise," in "The Moonlight Sonata," which presents him in his only screen appearance, is the South Station Theater's film feature. Other film offerings are "Men of the FBI," latest March of Time release; "Information Please," with Alice Marble guest starring; "The Nazis in Argentina," and the latest new release.

Eugene O'Neill Play At Copley May 14

Eugene O'Neill's "Marco's Millions," first offering of the newly organized Tributary Theater of Boston, will be presented at the Copley Theater on Wednesday evening, May 14, at 8:30. This sparkling satire on a Habbitt is directed by Eliot Duvey who directed the federal productions, "Macbeth" and "Dr. Faustus."

AUSTEN LAKE writes a feature article every day in the Boston Evening American.

'Pepe Le Moko' Opens Monday

"Pepe Le Moko," the Jean Gabin-starring French production which is now in its ninth big week on Broadway, is to have its New England premiere Monday evening at the Civic Repertory Theater, 284 Huntington ave.

This is the production for which Walter Wanger bought the American rights, basing the Hedy Lamarr-Charles Boyer starring "Algiers" on it.

The blonde Gabin has for his romantic partner, Mireille Balin.

The difference between them... and Gabin and Boyer... in the opinion of Producer Wanger, is "more than the difference in physical types. Rather it marks the difference between the French and American concept of motion picture. The difference in backgrounds is very slight, yet in many elements they are as different as night and day."

'Ziegfeld Girl' Extends Stay

Metro's lavish film musical, "Ziegfeld Girl," is holding over through Friday on Loew's State and Ophreum screens. "Fanny Seicende," Columbia's enthusiastically hailed production teaming Irene Dunne and Cary Grant in another successful screen mating, opens on the twin screens on Saturday morning, together with "The Trial of Mary Dugan," co-starring Robert Young and Laraine Day.

The super-colossal extravaganza, "Ziegfeld Girl," has, besides the co-starring Hedy Lamarr, Judy Garland, Lana Turner and Academy Winner James Stewart, 100 of the most gorgeous girls Metro talent scouts could find in this republic. This, combined with countless elaborate scenes and the presence of Charles Winninger, Jackie Cooper and Jan Hunter, makes the production something for the book.

And, of course, everybody is re-manning to see the second feature, "Blondie Goes Latin."

All Need Fresh Egg Each Day

By MARTHA LEE

May Day is Child Health Day, and the first week of the month is also devoted to the health of children. We can think of no better way to protect and promote good health than by the proper use of nourishing foods. And, of course, that means a fresh egg a day along with at least a pint of milk, butter, fresh vegetables, and fruit.

It is not difficult to make one set of menus serve for the whole family for the foods which children should have are best for grown-ups, too. An excellent luncheon includes Egg Pilau, with shredded lettuce, whole wheat bread and butter, Coconut Brownies and milk, with tea or coffee for grown-ups.

Desserts may be composed primarily of milk and eggs, like Floating Island. Then, too, there is nothing better for sandwich fillings, either for school lunches or the warm day picnic, than chopped egg mixed with simple salad dressing, or added to chopped ham, or other meat or vegetables.

EGG PILAU

- 1 cup uncooked rice
- 1 small onion, chopped
- 2 tbsp. butter
- 2 cups meat stock
- 2 cups tomato juice
- Salt, pepper

Cook the rice and chopped onion in the butter for a few minutes. Add the stock (which may be canned chicken broth, or bouillon, or bouillon cubes may be used) and tomato juice and season with salt and pepper. Cover and cook until rice is tender, and the liquid is almost absorbed. Break eggs into rice mixture, stir lightly with a fork, and cook a few minutes, or until eggs are set.

COCONUT BROWNIES

- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup melted shortening
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 tsp. vanilla
- 1/2 cup sifted flour
- 1 cup malt cocoa powder
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/2 to 1 cup nut meats

Beat eggs, add melted shortening, sugar and flavoring. Beat well. Add the dry ingredients sifted together, and the nuts. Spread in an 8-inch square pan lined with wax paper. Bake in a moderate oven (325 deg. F.) for 30 minutes. While still hot, cut in squares. These are so simple the children can make them, and for special service, top with vanilla ice cream.

FLOATING ISLAND

- 2 1/2 cups milk
 - 3 eggs
 - 1/2 tsp. vanilla
 - 1/2 cup sugar
 - Few grains salt
 - Jelly or preserve
- Scald milk in double boiler. Beat one whole egg and yolk of other two eggs, add 1/2 cup of the sugar and the salt. Pour on the hot milk gradually, return to double boiler and cook, stirring constantly until custard is thick enough to coat a spoon. Make a meringue by beat-

ESCALLOPED EGGDE LUXE—good to look at and good to eat! Make MaDay a festive occasion by serving it.

Two egg whites until stiff, add remaining sugar. Pour custard into shallow bowl and drop meringue by spoonfuls on top of it. Top each spoonful of meringue with either for school lunches or the warm day picnic, than chopped egg mixed with simple salad dressing, or added to chopped ham, or other meat or vegetables.

ESCALLOPED EGGDE LUXE

- 2 hard-cooked eggs
- 1 cup cooked peas
- 6 tbsp. butter
- 2 tbsp. flour
- 1 1/2 cups milk, c. half salt and 1/2 stock
- 4 eggs
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/2 tsp. pepper

Prepare a sauce, using: tablespoons of the butter, fl. milk, salt and pepper. Cool slightly. Increase the baking dish with the remaining butter. Arrange peas in a layer in the bottom of the pan with the sliced hard-cooked eggs on top. Season the layers with the eggs to the sauce and set to combine thoroughly. Pour the eggs. Bake in a slow oven (25 deg. F.) 45 to 60 minutes, or until firm. Let stand in mold for several minutes at least before unmolding. Unmold. Garnish and serve with a without sauce. A well seasoned rice sauce which 1/4-cup chopped, blanched almonds add. It may be served with the dish. An attractive effect may be secured by placing the center slices of the eggs around the outside of the dish. Makes 6 servings.

You Can Be Beautiful

Keep Your Contours Young

By ARLINE GOULD

IF YOUR FACIAL CONTOUR looks as though it were falling apart... you're not giving it enough stimulation! When tissues begin to have a dejected, saggy look... in spite of your feeding them the best of youth-retaining creams!... it means you've overlooked the kind of brisk stimulation that makes facial muscles firm... and therefore keeps the contour youthful.

Besides keeping your pores free and clear of impacting oils... there's a very fine texture lotion which you'll employ to help keep those contours firm and young. I'll leave your face tingling and glowing after a short treatment... for it's as stimulating as spring showers, making your face fresh as April.

You'll find, too... as you faithfully use the texture lotion after any creaming whatsoever... that in a matter of a few weeks your skin will look infinitely finer-textured... the pores will seem shrunken... and they actually will be! They will have contracted little by little because the clogging sebaceous and cosmetic oils have vanished... and they can close naturally instead of gaping open!

But it's the manner of application which holds at least half the secret of the texture lotion's success in firming contours. It should be patted on briskly. Not rubbed or massaged in... but PATTED! Make a sort of "paper" of cotton, using the sparkling lotion generously, twisting one end to make a little handle. And use the texture lotion ice-cold, because that gives it natural astringence... and it also makes your face feel WONDERFUL!

You'll notice a distinct change for the better in your skin within a week... finer, more radiant, clear of blackhead or blemish.

To learn more about this contour-firming texture lotion, phone Arline Gould, L1Berty 4000, week-days except Saturdays, or write, care of the Boston Evening American, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

MANUSCRIPT CLUB TO HEAR OF REFUGEES

Rev. Waitstill Sharp of Wellesley will speak on his experience working with refugees in France last summer, at the annual dinner of the Manuscript Club, May 6, at the Hotel Vendome. An informal reception will precede dinner.

Mr. Sharp is the son of the writer, the late Dallas Lore Sharp, whose pupils founded the Manuscript Club in his honor.

MANDRAKE THE MAGICIAN

Sensitive Nostrils

I'M SORRY IF I WAS RUDE, OR FRIGHTENED YOU - BUT THIS ORCHID IS THE RAREST SPECIMEN IN MY COLLECTION. NO ONE IS ALLOWED TO TOUCH IT.

OF COURSE.

IT'S A RARE VARIETY OF STRIPED ORCHID - MOST UNUSUAL - YOU'VE PROBABLY NEVER SEEN ONE LIKE IT BEFORE - OR NEVER WILL AGAIN...

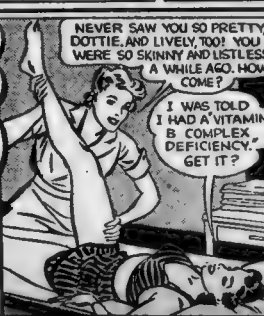

UNFRIENDLY OLD MAN, CLAIMS UNCLE, BUT THAT ORCHID IS BEAUTIFUL! VERY RARE, HE SAID. SOMEHOW, SOMETHING ABOUT IT SEEMED FAMILIAR...

I KNOW! THAT SWEET ODDOR! IT'S THE SAME SCENT THAT WAS IN MY ROOM THE NIGHT I TRIED TO KILL MANDRAKE!

DANCING DOTTIE... she gets a going-over!

NEVER SAW YOU SO PRETTY, DOTTIE, AND LIVELY, TOO! YOU WERE SO SKINNY AND LISTLESS A WHILE AGO, HOW COME?

I WAS TOLD I HAD A VITAMIN B COMPLEX DEFICIENCY. GET IT?

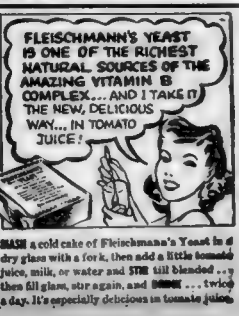

NOT QUITE! PUT IT IN LITTLE WORDS, PLEASE!

I HAD A SHORTAGE OF THOSE PRECIOUS VITAMINS THAT ARE FOUND SO ABUNDANTLY IN YEAST AND RAW LIVER

YOU MEAN THE REGULAR FLEISCHMANN'S YEAST CAKES? GROCERY STORE YEAST?

THE GIRL IS RIGHT! FLEISCHMANN'S IS RICH IN THE VITAMIN B COMPLEX, AND, OF COURSE, YOU CAN'T LOOK OR FEEL YOUR BEST WITHOUT THOSE VITAMINS, ITS CHEAP, TOO

FLEISCHMANN'S YEAST IS ONE OF THE RICHEST NATURAL SOURCES OF THE AMAZING VITAMIN B COMPLEX... AND I TAKE IT THE NEW, DELICIOUS WAY... IN TOMATO JUICE!

DASH a cold cake of Fleischmann's Yeast in a dry glass with a fork, then add a little tomato juice, milk, or water and STIR till blended... then fill glass, stir again, and DRINK... twice a day. It's especially delicious in tomato juice.

PEACE TERMS IN RADIO WAR READY FOR VOTE

NEW YORK, May 1 (INS).—Officials of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers and the board of directors and stockholders of the Mutual Broadcasting System early today agreed to submit terms to Mutual's 175 affiliated radio stations, which would form the basis for the return to the airwaves of over 1,250,000 songs controlled by the society.

According to an announcement by MBS, the terms of the proposal are the longest in radio copyright history, giving stations an opportunity to contract for as long as they desire, up to Jan. 1, 1950. Acceptance of this plan, it was said, would assure nearly a decade of peace in music-radio relations.

The proposed agreement covers two plans, one for "per program" and one for "blanket" license. The board of directors of Mutual expressed its preference for the blanket formula, for network programs.

Under the "per program" plan, ASCAP will receive 10 per cent of the net receipts from musical shows, 3 per cent from a program using theme songs or bridges, 2½ per cent for incidental music only, and 2½ per cent for incidental music used in connection with football games.

The "blanket" license terms, for the networks, calls for three per cent royalty on all network programs for four years and thereafter 3½ per cent until Jan. 1, 1950.

The license terms, for the stations, stipulate three per cent of net receipts for four years and 3½ per cent for remainder of the term.

(A game behind the second-place Dodgers but leading the National League in percentage were the Cardinals today. The Cards have in three fewer games than the Dodgers, a one and one-half game difference, but have lost only three to the Cards' four, making the difference to one game. Big leaguers would prefer the Cards' position with fewer games lost, with fewer games won. They know an unplayed game may be won, but one lost is forever.)

Visiting scribes enjoy their trips to Braves Field.
Professor Casey Stengel always greets them with a smile and a gag and invariably has a story or two of news value for them.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—The Syracuse Chiefs of the International League today acquired 34-year-old infielder Lindel Storti in a straight purchase from Minneapolis of the American Association.

Storti, a veteran utility infielder of 14 seasons of professional baseball, played five years with Milwaukee, also of the American Association, before going to the Minneapolis club in 1939.

fale. Terms of the purchase were not announced.

The final of the three-game series between the Braves and the Chicago Cubs, scheduled for Braves Field this afternoon, has been postponed because of rain. The world champion Cincinnati Reds invade the Hub for a two-game series starting tomorrow.

STARTING OF JOHNSON PEPS UP SOX MORALE

DETROIT, May 1—The morale of the Red Sox took a step upward today when Joe Cronin pitched Earl Johnson against the Tigers in place of Jack Wilson.

EARL JOHNSON

Last year, for example, he was given more chances than any other pitcher on the club, and yet pitched only two Grade-A games, one when he beat Bob Feller, 9-1, in mid-season, the other a three hitter against the A's during the fog end of the campaign when the pressure was off.

Wilson Stands in Way

Cronin has gone too far with him altogether, the other hurlers insist, and it's time he gave someone else a chance to hit the jackpot. There is the money angle, too, and it is not a minor one.

Wilson, the pitchers figure, draws down between $10,000 and $12,000, rather heavy metal. The average pitcher on the club gets, say, $5,000. And that average pitcher is jealous of Wilson because he feels he could compile a better record than "Blackjack" if given the opportunity.

The $5,000 pitcher would like to earn $10,000, and he'll never get up there while he is an occasional starter or is confined to the bullpen. A pitcher, normally, has to win 15 games before he can command a five-figure salary.

The average $5,000 pitcher is married and has a child or two. He must save enough out of that $5,000 to keep his family through the winter. And have enough left over to pay his spring training expenses which run into money.

Ball players are painted as grasping and greedy. Well, it's hard for a $5,000 man to be fast with a dollar. Tipping demands are high. Valet service is expensive. Cabs to the ball park are no minor item.

He must dress well, too, because he stops at high class hostleries. And if he takes his wife to training camp he must pay her expenses down there.

A ball player can't save much out of $5,000. And that's why the $5,000 man is always looking forward to the day when he will make $10,000 and why he beres so much when a fellow like Wilson stands in his path year after year.

Future of Sox Rests on Youngsters

Cronin has been most patient with Wilson. He's been expecting him to win 20 games since Hector was a pup, but Wilson never approaches the mark. Yet he has been afraid to let him go. He recalls the Charlie Ruffing case, where Big C left the Red Sox and became a sensation overnight with the Yankees. But Joe overlooks one important factor. Ruffing pitched for the Red Sox when they couldn't get him any runs. They were a perennial last place club. The Red Sox that Wilson has been pitching for have been the hardest hitting team in either major league. There is a big difference.

It has been agreed for years that the Sox would slide in safely with the American League pennant if they had the pitching, and it is nice to hear Joe Cronin say:

"The pitching has been high grade all spring. Much better than a year ago."

But there is still room for improvement. There always is room for improvement.

So that's why we say the morale of the Red Sox took a step upward today when Joe Cronin started Earl Johnson in the box in place of Jack Wilson.

The future of the Red Sox and their pennant ambitions rest with the Johnsons, the Wagners, the Hashes, the Harrises, the Newsoms, and the Judds, not with the Groves or Wilsons.

Sox Better Than Tigers Despite Double Setback

By HERB FINNEGAN

DETROIT, May 1—There's no reason to quit on the Red Sox. They're the same club which started the season with five straight victories. They've lost two in a row to the Tigers here, but they lost both games in the first inning.

For 16 of the 18 innings they have been a better club than Detroit, and Detroit is the champion of the American League.

In the first game, the Tigers combed Grove for four hits and two runs in the first frame. The final score was 5-3, and if Tuck Steinback hadn't made a million-dollar catch of Finney's drive in the ninth, the Sox might have copped the duke despite their bad start.

In the second game, the Tigers ploughed Charlie Wagner under with five runs, five hits in the first inning. The final score was 12-8 so you can see how the Sox rallied.

The Sox can hit and they can come from behind to win. They did it twice against Washington at Fenway Park, against the A's in Philadelphia, and overcame a 7-run lead the A's had piled up on them last Saturday to win 8-7.

HIT NEWSOM HARD

They came back gamely here, too. They had John Gorsica on the run in the last two innings Tuesday, getting four of their eight hits and two of their three runs.

In the second game they got eight of their 13 hits and five of their eight runs in the last two innings, off Newsom and Giell.

It's the pitching, of course, which is keeping them in the doghouse. And perhaps the two-day lay-off on the week-end helped throw that out of kilter. But the pitching hasn't been all bad. Harris was great when he relieved Grove, and Judd looked very much at home when he succeeded Wagner.

York hit him for a three-run homer, but York makes that a habit off everybody. That blow and Croucher's single were the only two balls well-tagged off the Canadian sawpaw.

DON'T WORK OFTEN ENOUGH

Judd, pleasant to say, didn't go to pieces when York hit his homer. He settled right down and fanned Greenberg for the final out.

In the third, the only other inning he pitched, he got Campbell, Higgins and Tebbetts on infield rollers. He looked as if he had the Tigers where he wanted them but he was lifted for a pinch hitter.

Yes, Harris was great. Judd promising. Hash fair and Hughson streaky. Johnson has proved in the past he has what it takes. Dick Newsom and Bill Fleming, Dickman and the crafty Mike Ryba ought to help straighten out things. There is talent on the staff however latent it may be.

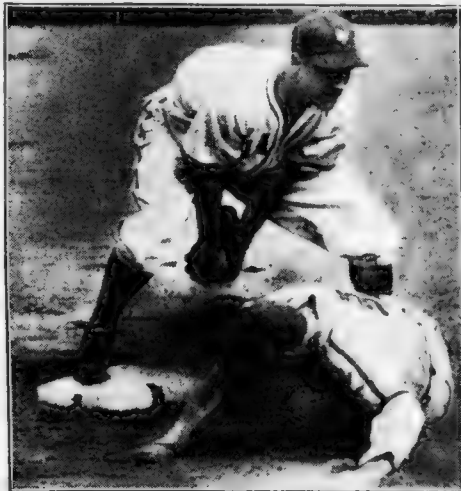

The main trouble is that the pitchers don't work often enough. The club has won seven games, and no single pitcher has won two. CAN'T BE WORSE

Young, strong fellows need work to keep in trim. Wagner, for instance, claims he must work every four or five days to keep his control and he hadn't worked for a week when he faced the Tigers.

For better or worse, the Sox must pick out four or five starters and stick with them, preferably kids like Johnson, Newsom, Harris, Fleming, Hash, Judd, etc.

The results couldn't possibly be any worse than they have been, and probably would be a whole lot better. It's a pity to waste such sweet hitting on a losing cause.

York was the leading Tiger villain with a homer, triple, double and five runs batted in. He got his homer off Judd, his triple and double off Hughson. . . Croucher, Tebbetts and Campbell also got three apiece, and Tebbetts had three runs batted in. . . Dom DiMaggio was the leading Sox slucker with a double and two singles. . . Frankie Fylik also got three, all singles, and one of them an infield hit. . . Newsom fanned Fox to lead off the fourth, then repeated to close the fifth. But if Jimmy isn't missing any longer, his fielding has been the best he's shown in years.

RIGNEY DRAFT DELAY SEEN

CHICAGO, May 1 (INS)—John D. Rigney, ace Chicago White Sox pitcher who was expected to be drafted into the Army early this month, may not be called for at least another 30 days, it developed today.

Although the hurler has been classed as I-A, subject to immediate call, it was revealed his board may not receive a quota of men for May as a result of a reduction in estimates for the month. The June call, however, will be correspondingly heavier.

36 McCreary Nightmare To Derby Veterans

EVENING AMERICAN, THURSDAY, MAY 1, 1941

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1 (AP)—Jockey society's "upper crust" will do most of the riding in Saturday's 67th Kentucky

Derby, but a couple of youngsters could prove mighty embarrassing to the stars before the afternoon is over.

Of the 11 riders assigned to handle the hopefuls in the chase after the $75,000 rainbow are veteran standouts of the turf war, steady under fire when the big money is on the line. Three of them have ridden Derby winners—Eddie Arcaro in 1938, Carroll Bierman last year and Don Meade in 1933.

But this year in Conn McCreary, the St. Louis streak who is piloting the favored Our Boots and has been "hotter than forty dollars" all year, there's the chance that the Meades, the Arcaros and the Woolfs might have to chase him home.

And if it's a longshot's year, it might be Herb Lemmons, who will ride the rank outsider, Valinda Paul.

MEET THE PILOTS

Step up and meet these little men, folks.

Conn McCreary (Our Boots)—Born 1921 at the south, the son of a generation of 191 in Florida and here... Only 96 pounds, but muscled as a wrestler and regarded among the headiest horsemen... Says horses run for him in the stretch.

Eddie Arcaro (Whirlaway)—Born 1915 at Newport, Ky... His ride on Lawrin to win the 1935 Derby is still regarded as the smartest in Derby history... His other Derby mount was Nellie Fling in 1935... Was top money winning jockey last year with $34,661 on 137 winners.

Leon (Buddy) Fox (Porter's Cap)—Born 1913 at Fort Gibson, Okla. Rode in two previous Derbies—third on Dit last year, seventh on Dorsett in 1939... Best card player among the jockeys... Other riders nicknamed him "Okla-homa Joe"... Piloted Kayak II in the 1910 Santa Anita Handicap when he ran second to Seabiscuit.

SPOTS OPENING QUICKLY

Carroll Bierman (Dispose)—Born 1914 at Centerville, Ill. Fourth leading money winner last year with $28,773... one of the quickest jocks to spot an opening and capitalize on it... That's how he won with Galahad last year... Fourth on Vincennes in 1933.

Basil James (Blue Pair)—Born 1918 at Sunnyside, Wash., nation's leading jockey in 1936; sixth in money winnings last year with $27,500... Rode in two previous Derbies—1933 and 1937, finishing third and seventh... has said he "never rode a real good horse in my life"... Originally slated to ride Whirlaway, but piloted him twice in other races and just didn't seem to "fit the coat."

Harry Richards (Robert Morris)—Born 1908 at New York. Oldest jockey in the race... Does most of his riding in the East... Contract jockey for George Widener for years... Won $187,093 last year... Finished second on Pomponio in 1937 Derby.

Irving Anderson (Market Wise)—born 1916 at Hoskins, Neb. Contract rider for Jack Whitney... Eighth in money winners last year with $20,000... Rode in three derbies—1938, 1937 and 1932.

BEST DERBY RIDER
Don Meade (Little Beans)—born 1913 at Plankinton, S. D. famous for the most sensational Derby ride of all time when he brought Broker's Tip to victory in 1933 "rodeo" after fighting with Herb Fischer on Head play all the way down the stretch... In 1939 topped the nation's riders.

George Woolf (Staretore)—Born, 1908, at Cardston, Canada. Like Arcaro, a great money rider... most famous for victory on Seabiscuit over War Admiral in 1935... rides free lance and "picks his spots"... only jockey who comes into the paddock wearing protegry linen duster over his silks, like Ted Sloan did in five previous Derbies, more than any one else, but never close.

Herb Lemmons (Valinda Paul)—Born, 1921, at Benton, Ill., a newcomer to racing... an unusual build for a jockey, tall and slim... rode 73 winners last year, winning $29,087.

Gov. Phillips Starts 80,000 Teams on Way

ENID, Okla., May 1 (AP)—Any public official who loses on the first baseball and start one game, but Gov. Leon C. Phillips will fire his best pitch across the plate here Sunday and send 80,000 semi-pro teams into action on 40,000 diamonds.

Phillips, a former University of Oklahoma athlete, will take his signal from George H. Sisler, once a pretty fair ball player himself and now national semi-pro commissioner.

Actually, the Governor's heave will open a game between the Champlin Refiners of Enid, national semi-pro champions, and an Oklahoma City team.

But the game has been designated the key contest for official launching of the semi-pro season from the National Semi-Pro Baseball Congress which set the time for the start of all of them at 3 p. m. (C. S. T.) Sunday.

From the 50,000 teams will come the 32 survivors of district eliminations which qualify for the 1941 national tournament at Wichita, Kan., Aug. 15 to 17.

LETTLE BEANS RATE 15 TO 1 FOR DERBY

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1 (AP)—Our Boots was made an 8-5 choice to capture the Kentucky Derby Saturday in the final quotations listed today by a leading Kentucky betting commissioner.

Porter's Cap was established the second choice at 2-1 with Whirlaway and Dispose third at 6-1 each.

Other quotations: Robert Morris 8-1, Market Wise, 12-1, Little Beans 15-1, Blue Pair 20-1, Starlet 40-1 and Swain and Valinda Paul each 50-1.

Robert Morris and Market Wise, working together, stepped off quarter-quarters of a mile handily in a workout this morning. Robert Morris was clocked in 23 seconds for the quarter, 47-2-5 for the half and finished out in 1:14-1-5.

Market Wise, breaking a bit behind his partner, was timed in 24, 45-4-5 and 1:14-3-5.

Porter's Cap breezed a half in 47-4-5 after being caught at 24 flat for the quarter. Valinda Paul worked five-eighths of a mile in 1:00-3-5. He was clocked in 24 for the quarter and 45 for the half.

Private Casey Pins Manlapig
Pvt. Steve Casey of Ft. Consolidation took two of the three falls from Manlapig, the Filipino, to win the main bout at the Arena wrestling show last night before 3000 fans.

Casey won the first fall in 18:43 with a chancery over shoulder, but Manlapig threw him in 9:58 with his cobra hold to even the match.

BACKSTRETCH BREVITIES

By the Associated Press
Golden Reel, which fell from the running of the steeplechase at Pimlico Tuesday, was found to have suffered a fractured leg and was destroyed. Trainer John Bosley is not sure whether the horse received the break during the spill or met with a further injury in his stall last night, as he was only slightly lame after the race. Golden Reel was owned by Mrs. Van Lear Black.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt has been notified by Charles S. Howard that his mare, Queen Helen, has foaled a colt by Identify at the Howard ranch in California. Vanderbilt shipped the mare west to be bred to Seabiscuit.

Mose Cosman, commissioner for Col. E. B. Bradley has checked in at Jamaica. He reports a carload of the Bradley horses will arrive at Belmont Friday and two more carloads are due Saturday in charge of Trainer Bill Hurley.

Word has reached Pimlico from Wilmington that the Foxcatcher Farms' Fairy Chart, only member of that stable Trainer Dick Handen has in training, is regarded as better than a possible starter in the Dixie Handicap. The four-year-old daughter of Chances Shot a working nicely.

Entries closed May 15 for the seven stakes that will be offered during the summer meeting at Empire City, July 2-26. Heading the program will be the $25,000 added Butler Handicap for three-year-olds and upward, July 5.

MARTIN CARRIES BANNER OF ALL-AMERICA IN PROS

HIS NEW SPRING hat was set at a rakish angle. He had a smile in his eyes, a laugh in his voice, and he looked the part of physical fitness. He would have made a grand model for an artist who wished to paint a picture of Young America.

The youngster was George Martin of the South End who battles Honey Melody of Charlestown in one of the ten-round bouts at the big benefit boxing show to be staged by the Goodwin A. C. in the Garden tomorrow night for the Brockton Fire Relief fund. Martin is a graduate of the American-Record All-America shows. As an amateur, he was an All-America champion, and now he is seeking the world's welterweight crown.

The South End welterweight engaged in his first out-of-town match in New York in the Eastern finals of an All-America tournament. He wasn't the least bit awed by the big town, and he went on to become a ring star.

Since joining the ranks of the professionals, Martin has smashed his way past some pretty tough opposition. Martin is an aggressive, bobbing, weaving boxer who packs dynamite in his right hand. Coming out of a crouch, he is liable to knock the opposition bowlegged with a right-hand punch.

Martin's first important professional bout was against Ralph Zanelli in Providence. Zanelli at the time was riding high in the fist game and was expected to score an easy victory. Martin fought Zanelli like he had his opponents in the amateurs. He kept moving forward and tossed leather with each hand. The result was he won the duke.

Since then Martin has campaigned in New York, Boston and Philadelphia rings and has been winning steadily. His most important triumph was scored over Pedro Montanez. The latter is one of the hardest hitting welterweights in the world. His name has frequently blazed forth in the big lights on the Garden in New York. Pedro was a 10 to 3 betting choice over Martin, but was decisively licked. These All-America kids have a habit of making the grade when the chips are down.

Martin won't have any pushover in front of him tomorrow night. Melody is a former New England professional lightweight champion. He did well until he developed a glass jaw. It may have been a case of where Honey got hurt by a punch, and decided he couldn't take a stout whack on the chin.

Since starting his comeback, Melody has been winning steadily and it looks as if he is in the hall game to stay. He can once more take a sock on the chin.

Skhor and Weinberg All-America Stars

JOHNNY SKHOR and Bill Weinberg, young heavyweights who will toss wallop at each other, are also former All-America. Skhor comes from Baltimore, but after making good in the heavyweight class of an All-America tournament located here and placed himself under the management of Johnny Buckley. The latter has taken Skhor along at slow stages and believes he is a potential champion.

Weinberg has come flying to the front during the past year. He has had considerable boxing in pro bouts around New York, and is ready to shoot the works. Weinberg is such a promising looking ring prospect that a dozen different professional managers have been trying to purchase his contract, but without success.

Skhor and Weinberg are young and enthusiastic enough to step from their corners fighting in the first round and to keep swinging away until one of them has been leveled.

Coley Welsh of Portland will risk his New England middleweight title against John Henry Eskew of Brockton. Welsh is a former South Boston boy, but in recent years he has been living in Maine. Coley gained the New England middleweight crown when he won over Henry Chmielewski in a furious battle at Portland. Incidentally Chmielewski and Harry Kelley, his manager, will be parked at the ringside tonight. Chmielewski is eager to take on the winner of the Welsh-Eskew affair.

In the other ten-round bout, Tony Shucco will reach for the championship heights when he tangles with Joe O'Gatty of New York. Shucco, like every other heavyweight, is dreaming of the night he will be in a ring with Joe Louis. Tony has been winning steadily, and he will have to score an impressive victory over the heavy thumping O'Gatty to retain his No. 1 standing.

The Brockton Fire Relief Fund will receive a 50-50 split on the profits of the show. Let us hope it is a healthy cut for it is certainly a most worthy cause.

The boxing card itself warrants 100 per cent support, and the nature of the cause for which it is being conducted warrants it receiving extra consideration.

MICKEY JOYCE, famous Californian announcer and a former Woburn boy, will be at the ringside for the Garden bouts. After an absence of 17 years, Mickey is in Boston visiting with his brother, Frank, who is associated with this newspaper.

Packer Denies Getting Order To Pull Horses

LOS ANGELES, May 1 (AP)—Jockey Steve Packer, recalled for cross-examination in the trial of five men accused of bribing jockeys to lose horse races on California tracks, testified he had been approached for tips, not to throw races.

In previous testimony, Packer said Bernard (Mooney) Packer, one of the defendants, had asked him to pull horses.

"Is it a fact that Mr. Elinstos never did tell you to pull a horse?" he was asked yesterday by defense counsel.

"He never told me to pull no horses," Packer replied.

In his previous testimony, Packer had denied authorship of a letter which stated "Elinstos was right in stating that the only business he ever did with jockeys was to give us money for tips we gave him on the races."

Yesterday, the jockey said he had written a similar letter, making that statement.

Questioned by the prosecution about the newly produced letter Packer said:

"I don't want to say any more about that because it might make up a lot of things, and I certainly wouldn't want to do that."

Mack Partial To Chisox

CLEVELAND, May 1 (AP)—"Don't overlook the White Sox," Manager Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics, said last night in a banquet speech.

Discussing the American League pennant race, the 78-year-old leader added Chicago has "what a pennant-winning team must have—pitching."

"I am not making predictions this year," Mack declared, "but I will say that the team with the best pitching staff will win the pennant. We used to figure pitching about 75 per cent of a ball club's strength—I would say now that 90 per cent isn't too high."

26 Boxing Fans Injured When Stand Collapses

BRIDGEPORT, Ct., May 1 (INS)

One man was in a serious condition today and 25 others were suffering from minor injuries sustained last night when a 20-foot section of bleacher seats crashed at the Mosque hall boxing matches.

Thirty of a group of 300 people sitting in the temporary stands were hurled 20 feet to the main floor of the hall when the benches collapsed. The injured were treated on the scene by ambulance surgeons.

Andrew Lecroix, 76, of South Norwalk, Ct., was taken to the hospital suffering from a compound fracture of the right leg.

Mamkos Upsets Vigh's Title Plans

WASHINGTON, May 1 (INS)—Steve Mamkos, of Washington, today looked forward to a shot at the middleweight title after gaining an unanimous decision over Ernie a 10-round bout last night.

In perhaps the greatest fight of his career, Mamkos took the lead from the opening bell and several times had the favored Vigh reeling on the ropes.

Mulcahy Ex-Phils Star, Hurls for Lynn

President Claude Davidson of the New England Baseball League stated today that he had been advised by Eugene B. Fraser, sponsor of the Lynn Fraser Club, that Hugh Mulcahy, Phillies pitcher now in the Army at Camp Edwards, would in all probability join the Lynn entry.

The extent of Mulcahy's activity will depend upon whether, because of rigorous Army training, he will be in proper physical condition to work often. He has told Fraser Club officials that he would not pitch except when he was in excellent shape.

Davidson announced that Jepp Saunders, manager of the Quincy Fore River Club, would be host to league directors at the Quincy City Hall on Sunday, May 4, at 3 p. m.

A tentative schedule drafted by a committee comprising Davidson, George Atkinson of the Lynn Frasers, Gus Hendrickson of the Worcester Nortons, and Ed Bourne of Manchester, will be ratified by the league. The league will also adopt an official ball for use this season.

Chicago Bears Play Eastern Stars Here

The Chicago Bears, champions of the National Football League, will oppose the Eastern College All-Stars at Fenway Park in the early part of September it was announced by the Crosscup-Pishon Post of the American Legion.

Next September's game is the third such contest staged by the Post, which will contribute its profits to charity. Previously, the Washington Redskins have provided the opposition for the collegians, and on both occasions have emerged the winner by a close margin.

The team from the Windy City was chosen to replace the Redskins this year. It will be recalled that the Bears annihilated Washington, 73-0, in the championship game played at the nation's capital last fall.

For the third successive year the college players will be handled by genial "Swede" Nelson, former Harvard player and coach. "Swede" will start signing up players immediately. He will scour the country for the best talent available from the 1940 gridiron flock, and he expects to field the strongest array ever to perform at Tom Yawkey's baseball orchard. This year, the star hunt will begin right here in the Hub, where several members of B. C.'s Sugar Bowl champions are expected to start the ball rolling.

Only graduating seniors are eligible for All-Star games.

Tape Measure Short, College Records Saved

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 1 (AP)—Track Coach Dave Glasscock of Indiana State Teachers' College, with a timely investigation, saved collegiate broad jump records from wholesale eclipse in a meet yesterday.

He examined the tape measure that was being used and discovered that somewhere in its length it omitted 1 foot 10 1/2 inches. Willie Darfus of Indiana State leaped 20 feet 2 1/2 inches, to win the event. His team took the meet from Indiana Central, 103 to 28.

OUT LIKE A LIGHT—If ever a fighter was kayoed beyond the proverbial shadow of a doubt, it is Cuban Lightweight Ruben Aldama, on the ropes. Hovering over him is Pablo Quinones, Puerto Rico. This unusual shot was taken during the Cuban-Puerto Rican matches. The Cuban team was coached by Kid Chocolate. The Puerto Rican fighters won the team title.

Pay Tribute To 'Old Hoss' Radbourne

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 1 (AP)—Baseball notables pay tribute today to the memory of one of the game's earliest heroes—Charles "Old Hoss" Radbourne.

Radbourne, who died in 1897, pitched his way to 310 National League victories in 11 years—60 of them in 1884 when he lost only 12 games in hurling Providence, R. I., to a pennant. His efforts that year included winning 26 of 27 games over a stretch of 47 days.

Participating in today's ceremonies was Clark Griffith, 71-year-old owner of the Washington Senators and himself a star pitcher in Radbourne's time.

"It was the Old Hoss who taught me the first rules of pitching," said Griffith, who won 237 major league games in 15 seasons.

Griffith will officiate at the dedication of a plaque to be placed on Radbourne's tombstone. Sponsoring the memorial observance is the Bloomington and Normal, Ill., Touchdown Club, an organization of sports enthusiasts.

Griffith, who is making his first return here in 20 years, will be honored at a banquet tonight.

Other baseball notables expected for today's events include Tom Yawkey, president of the Boston Red Sox; Edgar L. Brands, editor of the Sporting News of St. Louis, and Henry Edwards, American League publicity director.

"BOSTON AFTER DARK," by George Holland, is a regular feature of the Boston Evening American.

OVERLIN WILL ENTER RING BETTING CHOICE OVER SOOSE

By LAWTON CARVER

NEW YORK, May 1 (INS)—They will sweep Gargantua, the elephants and other flora and fauna out of Madison Square Garden next week, forget about the circus for another year and turn slightly diverted attention back to boxing, with Ken Overlin defending his New York Commission world middleweight title against Billy Soose, Friday night, May 9.

Overlin will be the betting favorite, but the hollering will be carried on in behalf of Soose in big, healthy roars. Three special trains will bring in his followers from upstate New York and Pennsylvania, according to Promoter Mike Jacobs' office.

Soose is an extremely popular and handsome young fellow and a sweet boxer, but the thoroughly unsentimental fight followers figure the ancient mariner will cop this one.

OVERLIN FORMER TOP

That would be Overlin, who sailed several seas aboard U. S. Navy battle wagons before he shed his uniform permanently and began the middleweight quest which has got him this far—recognition by the New York board as the No. 1 man among the 160-pounders.

The N. B. A. strings along with Tony Zale, of Chicago, but to further complicate the thing, Soose has whipped both of the recognized champions. Over-the-weight stipulations saved their crowns for them.

Anyway, Overlin has been all up and down the country fighting first come first served and through the years has become a very fine boxer and smart maneuverer in the ring, and they say Soose won't ever whip him with the title at stake.

QUIT NIGHT CLUBS

For one thing, the ancient mariner has given up his side career as a night spot habitue, and is sticking strictly to the business of getting as much out of his fighting equipment as he can. Marriage has settled him down at the pro-fessed age of 31. Some say he is at least a few years older.

This fight could be one of the last of his career if he were to get careless against Soose or go into the ring poorly prepared, but he insists he won't do either. He isn't one of Soose's fondest admirers, and seems quite thoroughly sold on the notion that he will win handsily enough in the scheduled 15 rounds.

HEARST SHOOT FINALS START NEXT SUNDAY

By WALTER KILEY

All is in complete readiness for the major rifle shooting championship of the New England season—the William Randolph Hearst Citizens Marksmanship Competition finals.

It took some four months of intensive qualifying matches before the 16 teams were named which will battle it out for the Hearst Trophy in the shoot-off at the 101st Infantry Armory next Sunday afternoon.

To one unacquainted with the sport, it is amazing to learn the tremendous interest in both rifle and pistol marksmanship in this part of the country.

NO ACCIDENTS

Many thousands of men and women, too, boys and girls, the latter identified with junior organizations, are crowding the ranges of New England every month of the year.

With competent instruction by experts in the arts of shooting, accidents are conspicuous by their absence.

A new impetus has been given to shooting by the greatly stressed defense needs of the country at the present time. Crack rifle men are taking a prominent place in the growing plans for home defense.

The sharpshooters who will be firing in the Hearst Championship finals on Sunday represent the outstanding shots of the Atlantic coast. Every one of the close to 80 competitors will be an artist in gun-fire, men of proven ability.

50-FOOT RANGE

John M. Shaughnessy, president of Bob Smith Sporting Goods Company of Boston, reports that the sale of .22 rifle shells has jumped at an almost unbelievable rate during recent months.

It is his opinion that there never has been as many citizens participating in shooting as there are at the present time.

The Hearst finals will comprise 20 shots prone and 20 shots offhand at 50 feet, total scores to count.

Tufts Next For B. C. Nine

Boston College will be seeking its third straight win when it goes against the Tufts nine at the latter's Oval tomorrow afternoon.

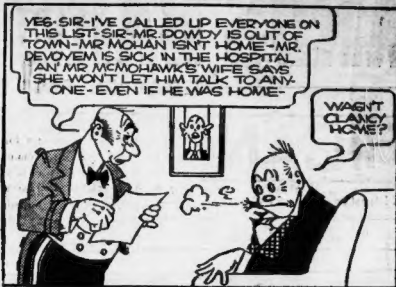

Saturday the Eagles will return to Alumni Field for the first game of a home and home series with St. John's of Brooklyn.

The Eagle nine continued Boston College's athletic supremacy over Boston University when it tipped the Terriers, 7-6, in an evening contested game at Alumni Field.

If the Newton diamonders can duplicate this effort when they meet the Terriers at Nickerson Field next Tuesday Boston College will have routed Boston University in athletics during the 1940-41 academic year. The Sugar Bowl championship gridlocked squashed B. U. last fall. The N. E. Intercollegiate League championship hockey team defeated the B. U. six times.

George "Lefty" Bent, lean junior from Rosindale, will toe the mound against Tufts. Bent is the young man who the first time he ever competed in a varsity baseball game came up with a five-hit pitching performance to stop a vaunted Fordham team, 6-3. That happened Patriot's Day at the Heights.

McKechnie's Outfit Fails With Bludgeon

By PAT ROBINSON

NEW YORK, May 1 (INS)—Billy Southworth, peppery little pilot of the Cardinals, said today he has the fastest, hustlingest club in baseball, a statement to which Leo Durocher of the Dodgers takes exception on both counts.

"The Cards may or may not be faster than we are," said Leo, "but neither the Cards nor any other club is going to outbustle my Dodgers."

Billy believes that if his exceptionally young players keep moving the way they've started, his pennant chances are just as good as the Red's or the Dodgers', a statement to which Durocher takes no exception.

"There's no doubt about it," said Leo, "the Cards have a great young club, but there's no whippers on my outfit."

And Bill McKechnie, boss of the Reds, agrees heartily with both Durocher and Southworth about their respective ball clubs but not for one minute does he concede they have a thing on his team.

REDS NOT HITTING

"We haven't started to click yet," McKechnie explained today. "Some of my boys are hitting at least a hundred points below their normal speed. But we'll get going pretty soon and then we'll see what happens."

He saw what happened in Brooklyn yesterday and the sight didn't please the old deacon at all. Faced by Frank McCormick's third homer in Brooklyn in as many days. No hit Johnny went into the eighth inning with a 3-0 lead. Up to this point he had held the Dodgers in the palm of his long left hand.

Then the fun began and before the inning was over the fighting Dodgers had the score tied. Dixie Walker slammed a ball over the fence and after Johnny issued a pass, Ducky Medwick hit one into the stands.

And the ninth, after Mickey Owen opened with a double, the deacon finally removed Johnny and sent in Joe Beggs. Beggs got rid of one man, but the next one—Peewee Reese—promptly doubled and the Dodgers had their third straight victory over the surprised Reds, 4-3. They also had in hand their ninth straight win, but to make it an even 10 they'll probably have to beat the highly capable Bucky Walters today.

CARDS RAP GIANTS

Meanwhile the Cards were knocking off the Giants again, 6-4, largely through the splendid pitching of bespectacled Sam Nahem, a Brooklyn boy, and the home runs of Enos Slaughter and Johnny Mize.

Old Larry French checked the Cubs losing streak by setting back the newly rechristened Braves, 9 to 4, and the Phillies surprised everybody, including themselves, by again knocking over the Pirates, 8 to 4. And just to rub it in a little more, it was the veteran Cy Blanton, whom the Pirates sold down the river to the minors last year, who turned the trick.

The Indians continued their hot pace in the other circuit, taking their sixth straight when Ken Keltner hit a dramatic game-winning homer off rookie Lester McCrabb with two out and one on in the ninth to beat the A's, 6 to 5. The Yanks kept step with the Indians when Marius Russo handcuffed the Browns, 7 to 1, and the White Sox made it five in a row when Ken Chas exploded all over the place with 10 walks and two wild pitches, the Sox beating the Senators, 5 to 1.

And the Tigers tore into some of the alleged Red Sox pitchers for 18 hits and a 12 to 5 verdict.

30 Seminarians Ordained

Prostrate before the altar of Holy Cross Cathedral, 30 seminarians are ordained to the priesthood today in an impressive ceremony. The ordination mass was celebrated and the ceremonies presided over by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Richard D. Cushing, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, Newton Center, auxiliary bishop of Boston. The Cathedral was crowded and a detail of police outside kept traffic moving smoothly. (Story on Page 10, Other Picture on Page 20.)
